Friday, February 26, 1982
The Oval Office
11:45 a.m.

From: Edward V. Hickey, Jr.

I. PURPOSE

To thank the pilots and paramedics for their assistance and to express appreciation for their responsiveness to the White House and Secret Service during the first year of the Reagan Administration.

II. BACKGROUND

This unit was formed in 1973 and is located in Anacostia Park. During 1981 they flew over 1000 missions (over 950 hours) to include 11 rescue missions, 267 medivacs and 872 law enforcement related missions as well as 131 missions in support of Secret Service. For 1982 they have already flown 41 missions in support of the Secret Service. These missions include support for Presidential, Vice Presidential, and foreign heads of state and heads of government.

Two members of the unit were involved in the rescue mission following the Air Florida crash in January. Shortly after that accident, this unit received an award from Bell Helicopter for flying in excess of 9000 hours of law enforcement and medivac type missions without mishap. This was the first such award presented by Bell Helicopter.

TAPING SESSION

DATE: February 26, 1982

LOCATION: Map Room

TIME: 3:45 PM

FROM: Mark Goode

I. PURPOSE

To tape a message.

II. BACKGROUND

This video tape will be played at the National Association of Television Program Executives 19th Convention, scheduled to be held in Las Vegas March 11 and March 16th 1982.

The NATPE Convention will attract this year 4,000 participants who make up the core of communications industry from an entertainment standpoint. FCC Chairman, Mike Fowler will make up the Convention's major address which will bring into focus the Reagan Administration's goals in achieving maximum deregulation while simultaneously increasing the protection of First Amendment rights.

III. PARTICIPANTS

The President

IV. PRESS PLAN

TAPING: NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF TELEVISION PROGRAM EXECUTIVES
FEBRUARY 26, 1982

Good afternoon. Back in 1974 I had the pleasure of addressing NATPE's (nat-pee) annual convention in Los Angeles, introduced by my old friend, Phil Boyer. I was Governor of California then, and Sacramento is a lot closer to L.A. than Washington is to Las Vegas. Still, I did want to use the magic of the camera to say hello to so many of the men and women who make the rich diversity of American television programming possible. In 1974, NATPE had a membership of 450. Today the ranks have swelled to 1,700. I'd like to think that this growth is a reflection of the variety and competitiveness in programming that this Administration believes in -- but I'm sure Chairman Fowler will have more to say about that in his remarks to you today.

Let me just express my personal admiration for the job you're doing, and my hope that you'll all work even harder in the year ahead to give the American people -- and to a large extent, the people of the world, who depend on American creativity for so much of their programming -- even better quality viewing fare that reflects the ideals, the beauty and the concerns of this great land.

Oh, yes, there's one more thing. I know "Death Valley Days" is getting a little shopworn for prime time, but how about trying to "strip it in." If it's good enough for "I Love Lucy," it's good enough for me.

FILMING SESSION

DATE: February 26, 1982

LOCATION: Library

TIME: 3:45 PM

FROM: Mark Goode

I. PURPOSE

To film a conversation.

II. BACKGROUND

This conversation is part of a documentary on the Emergency Medical Care System now in place in many hospitals. It is produced by George Washington Hospital and will air on March 30, 1982 on WJLA - TV Washington, DC.

In essence, the President will talk with the three doctors that treated him at GW Hospital on the care he received, the follow up treatment and how he feels now. Obviously, they want to show how healthy the President looks today! The conversation will be light and upbeat.

TAPING: NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF TELEVISION PROGRAM EXECUTIVES
FEBRUARY 26, 1982

Good afternoon. Back in 1974 I had the pleasure of addressing NATPE's (nat-pee) annual convention in Los Angeles, introduced by my old friend, Phil Boyer. I was Governor of California then, and Sacramento is a lot closer to L.A. than Washington is to Las Vegas. Still, I did want to use the magic of the camera to say hello to so many of the men and women who make the rich diversity of American television programming possible. In 1974, NATPE had a membership of 450. Today the ranks have swelled to 1,700. I'd like to think that this growth is a reflection of the variety and competitiveness in programming that this Administration believes in -- but I'm sure Chairman Fowler will have more to say about that in his remarks to you today.

Let me just express my personal admiration for the job you're doing, and my hope that you'll all work even harder in the year ahead to give the American people -- and to a large extent, the people of the world, who depend on American creativity for so much of their programming -- even better quality viewing fare that reflects the ideals, the beauty and the concerns of this great land.

Oh, yes, there's one more thing. I know "Death Valley Days" is getting a little shopworn for prime time, but how about trying to "strip it in." If it's good enough for "I Love Lucy," it's good enough for me.

FILMING SESSION

DATE: February 26, 1982

LOCATION: Library

TIME: 3:45 PM

FROM: Mark Goode

I. PURPOSE

To film a conversation.

II. BACKGROUND

This conversation is part of a documentary on the Emergency Medical Care System now in place in many hospitals. It is produced by George Washington Hospital and will air on March 30, 1982 on WJLA - TV Washington, DC.

In essence, the President will talk with the three doctors that treated him at GW Hospital on the care he received, the follow up treatment and how he feels now. Obviously, they want to show how healthy the President looks today! The conversation will be light and upbeat.

III. PARTICIPANTS

The President

TAPING: INTRODUCTION FOR NATIONAL COUNCIL ON ALCOHOLISM FILM
FEBRUARY 26, 1982

As many of you know, the abuse of alcohol is one of America's worst public health problems. The damage done to many of our families by alcoholism and alcohol abuse causes enormous human suffering.

Yet there is much that we as individuals can do. That is what this program is all about.
