BILL SIGNING CEREMONY FOR S. 1698
PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT OF AMERASIAN CHILDREN

DATE: Friday, October 22, 1982
LOCATION: The Roosevelt Room
TIME: 2:30 P.M. (10 Minutes)
FROM: Kenneth M. Duberstein Ken D.

I. PURPOSE

To sign S. 1698, a bill that amends the Immigration and Nationality Act to give preferential treatment in the admission of certain children of U. S. personnel. This ceremony will call attention to the plight of these "Amerasian" children.

II. BACKGROUND

Under this bill, a child is eligible to immigrate to the United States if he/she was fathered by an American citizen and was born in Korea, Vietnam, Laos, Cambodia, or Thailand after 1950. The bill also establishes identification procedures and qualifications for support.

The plight of thousands of Asian children fathered by Americans has received much press in recent years because of their status as outcasts in their countries.

Father Alfred Keane, a Maryknoll priest who ran St. Vincent's orphanage in Soeul for 29 years, sought congressional assistance for these children from Congressman Stewart McKinney (R-Connecticut).

Congressman McKinney began four years ago to seek a legislative remedy and together with Senator Jeremiah Denton (R-Alabama), a long-time Vietnam prisoner of war, redoubled efforts in 1981 to resolve the backlog of immigration cases of these children. S. 1698 will do that.

Participants from the private sector are representatives of organizations that were long involved in this legislative effort in behalf of the children and includes Amerasian children who came into this country before this bill was adopted by the House and Senate.

III. PARTICIPANTS

See attached list.

IV. PRESS PLAN

White House photographer and Press Pool.

V. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

Participants are placed in Roosevelt Room, President enters and makes greeting and signing statements. The President then signs the bill. Signing pens will be presented at a later date.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SIGNING OF S. 1698 AMENDING THE IMMIGRATION & NATIONALITY ACT
(FOR AMERASIAN CHILDREN)
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1982

Today I am signing into law legislation that comes to grips with a problem that should touch every American's heart. During the last three decades when tens of thousands of our airmen, soldiers and sailors went to Southeast Asia and Korea to prevent aggression and to protect the vital interests of our country, a number of Amerasian children were born. When their fathers returned to the United States, far too often innocent children were left without a parent and without a country.

Through no fault of their own, these children have frequently lived in the most wretched of conditions and often have been ostracized in the lands of their birth.

Today it gives me great pleasure to sign S. 1698, a major step toward facing up to a moral responsibility we cannot ignore. This is a good and humane law. It recognizes the rightful claim of Amerasian children to American citizenship and permits their entry into our country after arrangements for their care have been made with their families or with private organizations.

The sponsors of this legislation, Senator Jeremiah Denton and Congressman Stewart McKinney, deserve a special word of thanks for their efforts to reunite these children with those who will love and care for them. And also thanks to Father Alfred Keane who worked so hard for this bill.

Americans have always opened their hearts to those coming from distant lands to make a new life here, to live in freedom and to improve their lot. In this case, we should go a step further. Instead of saying welcome to these children, we should say . . . welcome home.

And now, it gives me great pleasure to sign this bill.

Orthodox Jews are the most supportive element of the Jewish community and the Lubavitchers are the only ones to actively support all of your domestic initiatives. Their spiritual leader, the Rebbe, is celebrating his 80th birthday this year, which is an event of worldwide acclaim. You wrote the Rebbe at the beginning of this special year of celebration (letter attached). You also signed the National Day of Reflection Proclamation (attached) which is a tribute to the Rebbe, who is not able to travel and must remain in Brooklyn.

The Lubavitchers have 80 centers in 32 states and millions of followers nationwide. Strong Lubavitcher supporters are Senators Boschwitz & Thurmond and Chic Hecht of Nevada. The group avidly supports your tuition tax credit, pro-life and prayer in school stands and applaud your overall pro-family attitudes. Those greeting you are emissaries representing their 80 U.S. centers.

Dear Rebbe:

Nancy and I are pleased to share in the joy and celebration which surrounds your 80th birthday on this 11 Nissan. On behalf of all Americans, we offer our most heartfelt congratulations.

You have so much of which to be proud. Since your first moments in the United States in 1941, you have shared your personal gift of universal understanding to the benefit of all. Time and again, your love and spiritual guidance have brought hope and inspiration to those confronted with despair. In bringing solace and comfort to the human spirit, you have helped to strengthen the foundation of faith which is mankind's most vital asset. Your life's work has been a response to that special calling few are privileged to hear.

I am especially pleased to join members of Congress in proclaiming a National Day of Reflection on your birthday. As I stated in the Proclamation, your work "stands as a reminder to us all that knowledge is an unworthy goal unless it is accompanied by moral and spiritual wisdom and understanding." As with all great leaders, you have given much more than you will ever receive.

God bless you today and always.

Sincerely,

NATIONAL DAY OF REFLECTION

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Amid the distractions and concerns of our daily existence, it is appropriate that Americans pause to reflect upon the ancient ethical principles and moral values which are the foundation of our character as a nation.

We seek, and steadfastly pursue, the benefits of education. But education must be more than factual enlightenment -- it must enrich the character as well as the mind.

One shining example for people of all faiths of what education ought to be is that provided by the Lubavitch movement, headed by Rabbi Menachem Schneerson, a worldwide spiritual leader who will celebrate his 80th birthday on April 4, 1982. The Lubavitcher Rebbe's work stands as a reminder that knowledge is an unworthy goal unless it is accompanied by moral and spiritual wisdom and understanding. He has provided a vivid example of the eternal validity of the Seven Noahide Laws, a moral code for all of us regardless of religious faith. May he go from strength to strength.

In recognition of the Lubavitcher Rebbe's 80th birthday, the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled have issued House Joint Resolution 447 to set aside April 4, 1982, as a "National Day of Reflection."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RONALD REAGAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim April 4, 1982, as National Day of Reflection.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 3rd day of April, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighty-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and sixth.

RONALD REAGAN

This is consistent with Administration efforts to promote private sector initiatives, public/private partnerships, and New Federalism.

II. BACKGROUND

HUD, SBA and the White House Office of Private Sector Initiatives have been working since March to put together a public/private partnership which would leverage public dollars (CDBG, UDAG, SBA funds) with private dollars to allow small busniesses to expand and create new jobs. Twenty-one states were selected on a competitive basis. All governors received a letter from Sam Pierce last May inviting them to participate in the program. The meeting officially announces the effort.
