MEETING WITH NEW YORK CRIMEFIGHTERS

PLACE: New York, New York
DATE: April 27, 1983
TIME: 11:30 a.m.

FROM: DAVID GERGEN DP
Assistant to the President for Communications

I. PURPOSE

To thank individual citizens, designated by the New York Daily News as Crimefighters, for their contributions in stopping crimes. Also, to commend the New York Daily News and the City of New York for this public-private effort.

II. BACKGROUND

In February, 1982 the New York Daily News, in partnership with the New York City police, initiated the Daily News Crimefighter Campaign. The Campaign includes:

- o A weekly $1,000 Daily News Crimefighter Award to the person or persons whose actions made New York a safer place to live and work;
- o A $25 award every day for three months to the person submitting the best crimefighting suggestion of the day. Readers submitted 32,700 letters; and
- o Daily features detailing crime problems and encouraging citizen participation in fighting back.

So far, more than $60,000 in prize money has been given out to citizens by the newspaper.

The event will take place at New York's Mid-town South Precinct, sometimes known as the "busiest precinct in the world" because of its high crime volume. The precinct stretches from Lexington to 9th Avenue and from 28th to 48th Street. It includes the garment and theater districts, Penn Station and the Port Authority. Most of the precinct's crimes are either muggings or burglary's.

III. PARTICIPANTS

Mayor Koch, Police Commissioner McGuire, New York Daily News Executive Editor Jim Wieghart and some 40 award winning Crimefighters.

Among the Crimefighters expected to attend are:

- Albert Torres, 18, and his brother Alvin, 23, who chased a knife wielding purse snatcher;
- Rabbi Risroel Rosenfeld, 40, who in capturing a mugger armed with a machete, rescued an 84 year-old woman; and
- Airman Jerry Scarfoglierro, 17, who caught three suspected car thieves and muggers after they tried to run him down with a car and assaulted a 69 year-old man.

Catherine Keneally, a 58 year-old grandmother who chased and caught a pickpocket while on her way to a Broadway matinee may also be in attendance.

- New York has 36 electoral votes.
- President Reagan carried New York state in 1980 with 46.7% of the popular vote.

- Lt. Governor Mario Cuomo won a narrow victory over Republican businessman Lew Lehrman by a 51% to 48% margin. (Lehrman carried 55 of the 62 counties)
- Lehrman has formed a political action committee and is supporting Republican candidates throughout the state.

1982 Congressional Elections

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

April 26, 1983

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: RICHARD S. WILLIAMSON
SUBJECT: BACKGROUND INFORMATION FOR YOUR NEW YORK TRIP

---

This memorandum provides background information on Mayor Koch and Governor Cuomo.

MAYOR KOCH

As you of course know, Edward I. Koch is the Democratic Mayor of New York City. He was reelected by a wide margin in 1981 and was defeated by Mario Cuomo in the September, 1982 Democratic primary for Governor.

You have met Mayor Koch many times during your Administration -- on trips to New York City or in meetings at the White House.

The Mayor's posture with respect to Administration policies has been inconsistent at best. In the past, he has referred to our domestic policy as a "sham and a shame." He has described our economic and social programs with such words as "folly," "outrage," and "ridiculous," and said the 1983 budget was a "war on the cities."

At the same time, he has said that in meetings at the White House he has found you to be "extremely well-informed," and that, while he opposes many of your policies, he likes you personally.

In short, Mayor Koch will support you and your policies when it is politically convenient for him to do so; he will not be [and has not been] with you in the trenches when the going gets rough.

The issues which Mayor Koch has contacted the White House about recently are: the independent truckers' strike; the mass transit strike; legislation to reimburse New York City for diplomatic protection expenses; and his support for a national program to require young men and women to give one year's public service to their country. He has also invited you to participate in the Centennial Celebration of the Brooklyn Bridge on May 24, 1983.

GOVERNOR CUOMO

Governor Cuomo narrowly defeated Republican candidate Lewis Lehrman in the November, 1982 gubernatorial race. Prior to his election, Cuomo served as New York Secretary of State from 1975-1979. In 1977, he was defeated for Mayor of New York running as the Liberal party candidate. He became Lt. Governor of New York in 1978.

Upon inauguration, Cuomo faced a $1.8 billion deficit. He proposed over $800 million in revenue increases and nearly $800 in program cuts and used $140 million from appropriated trust funds to close the budget gap.

Since his election, White House Intergovernmental Affairs has worked with the Governor on two issues:

1. The federal response to the closure of the Bethlehem Steel plant in Lackawanna, New York. This closure caused the unemployment rate in Lackawanna to rise dramatically;
2. The commuter railroad transit strike in New York City which was recently settled by an agreement to enter binding arbitration.

Governor Cuomo has been a critic of the cost of the Administration's defense build-up and of the cuts in social programs. At the NGA Winter Meeting March 1, 1983, Governor Cuomo was quoted as saying that, "The governors think the President is wrong. Too much money is going into defense. The deficit is too large. We're saying let's be nice about it, but you are wrong."
