WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: ED ROLLINS ER
SUBJECT: TEXAS - POLITICAL BRIEFING

1984 Presidential Race

- Texas will send 109 delegates and alternates to the 1984 Republican Convention. (In 1980, they sent 80 delegates.)
- President Reagan carried the state by a 56% to 42% margin. He won Harris County (Houston) by 143,000 votes (58%).
- Presidential primary date: May 5, 1984
- Democrats: Former Vice President Mondale is reportedly making major inroads within the statewide Democrat party and its leaders.

1984 U.S. Senate Race

Republicans:

- Four-term Senator John Tower is expected to seek re-election, although he has yet to make a formal announcement.
- Senator Tower is expected to be one of the top targets for defeat by National Democrat campaign committees.
- Tower was first elected in a special election in 1961 for Lyndon Johnson's vacant seat and was re-elected in 1966 and 1972.

Democrats:

Possible Democrat candidates include the following:
Leading possibilities:

- Robert Krueger- A moderate, ex-Congressman, narrow loser to Tower in 1978 and former Ambassador to Mexico. Krueger opposed Tower in 1978 and garnered 49 percent of the vote.
- Lloyd Doggett - A liberal, Austin State Senator; promotes consumer causes and utility rate reforms. Expected announcement this summer.
- Dolph Briscoe - A conservative and former governor.
- Kent Hance - A conservative congressman.

Other possibilities include:

- Jim Hightower - A liberal agricultural commissioner.
- Ann Richards - A liberal state treasurer.
- Buddy Temple - A candidate in 1982 gubernatorial primary.
- John Hill - A candidate in 1978 gubernatorial primary.

1982 Election Results*U.S. Senate:

Incumbent Democrat Lloyd Bentsen was re-elected to a third term over Congressman James Collins by a 59% to 41% margin.

Governor:

Democrat Attorney General Mark White defeated incumbent Republican Governor William Clements by a 53% to 46% margin. A post-election survey by Tarrance and Associates indicated the following:

- Federal issues dominant in voter turnout: unemployment, economy, and social security.

- State utility issue was of secondary importance.
- 13% of respondents reportedly "sent a message" by specifically turning out for this election.
- Straight ticket voting was substantially higher than normal.
- Clements vote shortfalls were with ticket splitters and conservative Democrats.
- Clements received 28% of the Hispanic vote.
- Late vote switching to White came from minority groups, older voters, males and working women without a college education, and overall shifts in Harris and Bexar counties.
- An effective combined voter turnout effort by the major Democratic campaigns (Bentsen, White and Hobby).

U.S. House: 1982 Summary

- Texas gained three seats from reapportionment.
- Republicans made no gains while Democrats picked up three seats.

Highlights of Key Congressional Races

3rd C.D. - North Dallas - northern suburbs

Former Congressman Jim Collins' House seat was won by Republican Dallas City Councilman Steve Bartlett with 77%.

13th C.D. - Amarillo - Wichita Falls

Republican Ron Slover lost a second attempt against Congressman Jack Hightower, 64% to 35%.

14th C.D. - South Central, Gulf Coast - Victoria

Former Democrat Congressman Joe Wyatt ran as the Republican candidate and lost to incumbent Democrat Bill Patman, 61% to 39%.

16th C.D. - West - El Paso

El Paso Republican Alderman Pat Haggerty lost an open seat to Democrat state Representative Ronald Coleman, 54% to 44%.

23rd C.D. - San Antonio - Southwest

Democrat incumbent Abraham Kazen defeated former Republican Bexar County Commissioner Jeff Wentworth, 55% to 44%.

24th C.D. - South Dallas and western suburbs

Democrat incumbent Martin Frost defeated black Republican City Councilwoman Lucy Patterson, 59% to 40%.

25th C.D. - South Houston - southeast suburbs

Republican Mike Faubion lost to Democrat Mike Andrews, 60% to 38%.

26th C.D. - Fort Worth suburbs

Former Arlington Mayor Democrat Tom Vandergriff defeated former Fort Worth Mayor pro tempore Republican Jim Bradshaw by less than 400 votes.

1983 Special Congressional Election

- Democrat-turned-Republican Phil Gramm defeated Democrat Dan Kubiak (and others) by a 55% to 39% margin.
- Possible 1984 challengers to Gramm include: State Senators Dan Kubiak, Chet Edwards, Kent Caperton and former Dallas County Commissioner Roy Orr.

1983 Congressional Redistricting

- A 1982 court ruling insisted that the Dallas area congressional districts be reapportioned in 1983 to conform to the Voting Rights Act. Legislative hearings are currently being held.
- Democrat legislators will propose shifting more Arlington County voters into freshman Representative Tom Vandergriff's district thereby strengthening his Democrat base.

1982 State Legislative Election

- Republicans gained two seats in the state Senate and remained unchanged in the state House.
- The state Senate redistricting plan is facing legal challenges based on its lack of conformity to the Voting Rights Act.

1983 Houston Mayoral Election:

- Mayor Kathy Whitmire faces a tough challenge in the November election from Bill Wright, a Houston oil executive and former Democrat party treasurer.

Republican State Party: Status

- Republican State Chairman Chet Upham recently resigned due to internal party dissension caused by the Clements loss and a large party debt from the 1982 elections.
- Many observers feel the real reason for dissension is party splits created by delegate fights between conservative and moderates among the Texas convention delegates in 1976 and 1980.
- Former secretary of state and candidate for lieutenant governor, George Strake should be elected state chairman and is expected to unite the disparate party factions.
- Strake was an alternate Reagan delegate in 1976, has worked in all but the first of Towers four campaigns for U.S. Senate, and directed the 1978 election of Bill Clements for governor.

SENATOR HOWARD BAKER (R-Tennessee)

Causal and pragmatic in style, Senator Howard Baker has proved to be one of the most effective and well respected Majority Leaders in the history of the Senate. He has been a strong and effective supporter of your Administration's programs. Senator Baker's skill at personal persuasion has often made the difference on close votes in the Senate, and he is always available and sensitive to his colleagues' needs. Although most of Baker's time is consumed in leadership responsibilities, he is also an effective member of the Environment and Public Works Committee, the Foreign Relations Committee, and the Senate Rules Committee.

Senator Baker comes from a political family; his father served seven terms as a member of the House from Tennessee, and he is married to the former Joy Dirksen. In 1982, his daughter, Cissy, ran an unsuccessful campaign for the House. Baker was first elected to the Senate in 1966, and has announced that he will not seek re-election when his current term expires in 1984. He has indicated a likelihood that he will consider running for President at some future time.

Baker is a lawyer by profession, and served three years in the Navy. In addition to his daughter, Baker and his wife, Joy, also have a son, Derek, and one grandchild. Baker is an avid photographer and is rarely seen without a camera of some size. Baker recently suffered from an ulcer problem, and Mrs. Baker is recovering from a broken knee.

Senator Baker is currently embroiled in a number of major issues of interest to the Administration. He is working hard with his colleagues to fashion a solution to our budget problem in the Senate, an issue which will be the subject of debate on the Senate Floor in the next few days. We will also rely heavily on his leadership on the MX and other urgent issues which the Congress will be considering in the next few weeks.

SENATOR JOHN TOWER (R-Texas)

Senator John Tower is undertaking his fifth campaign for the Senate in Texas. He was first elected to his seat in 1961 in a special election to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Lyndon B. Johnson. Although there is no such thing as an easy race for any Republican seeking a statewide political office in Texas, Tower is an effective and energetic campaigner and relates well to the diverse economic and cultural regions within his state.

After nearly 22 years in the Senate, Tower is recognized as one of its most powerful Republican members. He is the second most senior Republican in the Senate, he serves as Chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, and Chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee. He is also a member of the Senate Banking Committee and the Senate Committee on the Budget. In recent years, Tower has devoted nearly all of his legislative efforts to defense issues. He is a strong supporter of the Administration in this area, and has been a firm and vocal proponent of your defense spending requests. Tower is a savvy politician and is respected by his colleagues for being exceedingly adept at the art of conciliation. Senator Tower has a strong conservative voting record, although he has, on occasion, agreed to "bend" here and there at the behest of Republican Presidents. For example, although Tower does not personally support debt limit increases, he not only supported the first increase request you made shortly after taking office, but also convinced a number of his fellow conservatives to do likewise.

Senator Tower is married to the former Lilla Burt Cummings. They have four children (three daughters from his previous marriage and her son from from a previous marriage). At some point during your trip, you will meet the Tower children -- daughters Penny, Marian ("Pooh"), Jean, and son, George Bigar.

Senator Tower is currently hard at work on the defense authorization bill, and hopes to have this bill ready for Senate consideration by mid-to-late May. In addition, he will play a key role in assisting our efforts to gain approval of the MX Commission's report, as well as higher defense spending numbers.

Mrs. Tower will be traveling with you. You recall that you appointed Mrs. Tower to serve as Director of the Institute for Museum Services.

SENATOR JOHN CHAFEE (R-RHODE ISLAND)

Senator John Chafee is a Rhode Island native. He is sixty-one years old and graduated from Yale University and the Harvard Law School. As a Marine he served at Guadalcanal and under recall in Korea. After a six year term in the Rhode Island legislature, two as Minority Leader, he was elected in 1962 by 398 votes as the first Republican Governor in eleven consecutive elections. He was then reelected to two more terms by the largest margin in the State's history. Following a three year term as Secretary of the Navy he was elected to the United States Senate with a 58 percent victory. That was the first time in 46 years that a Republican had been elected from Rhode Island to the Senate.

Chafee is very conscious of his political frailty in Rhode Island. He works hard and does well at holding a broad spectrum of support. As such he is at odds with us on some issues. But he is very conscious of the leadership responsibility that Republicans have inherited with control of the Senate and the President's election. And he is usually very supportive when the tough leadership tests arise. As a member of the Senate Finance Committee he is critical to holding our tax cut and indexing. At this point he has sided with Senator Hatfield on repeal. He is also a critical vote on natural gas in the Senate Energy Committee, and is not comfortable with decontrol.

CONGRESSMAN JACK FIELDS

(REPUBLICAN - TEXAS)

Jack Fields is a sophomore Republican from Texas' eighth district (southeastern part of state). In the House of Representatives, Jack serves on the Energy and Commerce Committee and the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee.

Jack was a strong and consistent supporter of Administration-backed legislative initiatives during the 97th Congress, with the notable exceptions of foreign assistance, the 1982 tax initiative (H.R. 6211) and the highway bill (H.R. 4961). Thus far in the 98th Congress he has supported the Administration on all of the key House Floor votes (i.e., social security, the budget and nuclear freeze). Jack has been particularly active on the Law of the Sea Treaty (he does not think we should sign the Treaty), and he has been working with the Department of Labor on a trade adjustment assistance problem involving workers at a Houston steel plant.

Fields has met with the President and attended White House functions on a number of occasions. In addition, he accompanied the President aboard Air Force One on a trip to Houston, Texas in November of 1981.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON BASKETBALL TEAM
SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 1983

I just thought I'd stop by and see exactly what Phi Slama Jama means. I've been made an honorary member of a lot of organizations, but I'll have to admit, this one is unique.

Fellas, I want to offer you all my heartfelt congratulations. I know you were the number one basketball team in the country right up until the last 2 seconds of the season. Some people say that losing close is worse than losing big, but don't you believe it. You proved you are a great team, that you are great sportsmen. You don't have to win to prove that -- but coming close helps.

And congratulations also to your fine coach, Guy Lewis, for being selected Coach of the Year. Guy, you've done a fine job: maybe we can get you over to the White House to help us work on a little teamwork.

All of you've got a lot to be proud of, and I want you to know we're proud of you too.
