MEETING WITH NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF HOME BUILDERS' BOARD OF DIRECTORS

DATE: May 16, 1983
LOCATION: Washington Hilton Hotel
TIME: 11:00

FROM: FAITH RYAN WHITTLESEY

I. PURPOSE

To address the Board of Directors of the National Association of Home Builders at their annual meeting on issues which affect the homebuilding industry.

II. BACKGROUND

This group is composed of over 110,000 independent home builders. Over 75% of the membership are small businessmen. More than two-thirds of all residential building in America is done by its members. Housing starts, up over 90% from the first quarter of 1982, are leading the recovery. Home builders are more optimistic this year than any time during the past three years. The group has passed a resolution blaming Paul Volcker for the high interest rates which crippled the housing industry, and have called upon you to replace him.

At the time of the 1982 meeting, then President, Fred Napolitano, presented you with a model home in the Cabinet Room.

III. PARTICIPANTS

Approximately 2,000 people including over 900 directors. The meeting will be video-taped, and sent to over 800 state and local home builders' meetings in ensuing months.

IV. PRESS PLAN

Open Press

V. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS:

11:00 am Upon arrival by car, you are greeted by the 5 senior officers of the association (Harry Pryde, President of NAHB, Pete Herder, John Koelemij, David Smith & Fred Napolitano.)
11:05 am You enter the Hotel for a photo opportunity with these gentlemen.
11:10 am Proceed to the hotel Cabinet Room for hand shake with major PAC contributors (Capitol Club)
11:15 am Proceed to Holding Room and await your introduction
11:20 am You are introduced by President, Harry Pryde, then deliver your remarks.
11:45 am You depart hotel

RESPONSE DUE 4/13/83 TO FJR, jr.

May 3, 1983

Dear Mr. Pryde:

On behalf of the President, I wish to acknowledge and thank you for your kind invitation to address your annual Spring Board of Directors Meeting.

The President is pleased to accept. This has been entered on his schedule for Monday, May 16, 1983, at 11:00 a.m. and nearer the date Mr. William Henkel, Special Assistant to the President and Director of Advance, will contact you about the President's acceptance of your invitation.

The President's acceptance of this invitation should not be announced to anyone until official notification is given by the White House Press Office, and any public announcement of this event must be coordinated with that office.

You should be aware that certain physical facility requirements exist for any Presidential appearance. The costs which are associated with these requirements are generally the responsibility of the host and are summarized on the attached list.

If you wish to alter the current plans for this event in any way, such as changing any part of the format, the location, or the participants, please direct your request for the proposed change to the Office of Presidential Appointments and Scheduling.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Frederick J. Ryan, Jr.
