MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: ED ROLLINS ER
DATE: JULY 28, 1983
SUBJECT: POLITICAL BRIEFING -- GEORGIA

STATE POLITICAL BACKGROUND

- Since 1948, Georgia has only voted Republican in 2 of 9 presidential elections (1964 for Barry Goldwater; 1972 for Richard Nixon).
- Georgia has elected only one Republican Senator in its history - incumbent Mack Mattingly.
- The state has not elected a Republican governor since Reconstruction.
- Georgia is a major manufacturing state in textiles, apparel, wood products -(69% of Georgia's land is covered by forests)--transportation equipment, chemicals, food processing, airplanes and mobile homes.
- State agricultural products include cotton, peaches, peanuts, livestock and Georgia leads the nation in poultry production.
- Federal military establishments pump billions of dollars into Georgia's economy each year -- they include Ft. Benning, Warner Robins Air Force Base, Ft. Stewart, Ft. Gordon, and Kings Bay Naval Submarine Base.
- Tourism is down since the defeat of Jimmy Carter in 1980.
- The state has made enormous strides in race relations - each year it attracts thousands of talented blacks.
- 18 Georgia counties have majority black populations, yet only 6 have majority black voter registration.
- Atlanta has become one of America's most vibrant cities as it has become a major corporate and business center.

1984 PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN

- Georgia Republicans will send 37 delegates to the 1984 Republican National Convention.
- Georgia will have 12 electoral votes in 1984.
- Georgia was among the 6 states plus the District of Columbia carried by Jimmy Carter in 1980.

- President Reagan finished second with 41% of the statewide popular vote in 1980 and received only 34% of the Fulton County (Atlanta) vote.
- The state Democratic and Republican presidential primaries are scheduled to be held on March 13, 1984.
  - This date has become known as "Super Tuesday" because of the number of Democratic convention delegates up for grabs.
  - Georgia is one of nine states holding Democratic primaries or caucuses on that date.

DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

- Members of the host committee for a June Mondale reception in Atlanta included Jack Watson, former Carter White House chief of staff; Dorothy Padgett, former Carter political protocol chief; Robert Lipshutz, former council to Carter; and former ambassadors Philip Alston and William B. Schwartz, Jr., all of the Atlanta area.
- Members of the Carter White House who have yet to endorse a candidate include former White House Chief of Staff Hamilton Jordan; former Office of Management and Budget Director Bert Lance, the current Democratic State Party Chairman; and former U.N. Ambassador Andrew Young.
- Sen. John Glenn has hired Alan McLeod to co-ordinate his Georgia efforts.
- McLeod is working with Chris Valley, a social services administrator for a private, non-profit agency and former chairman of the Georgia Young Democrats, to contact members of religious and welfare organizations and political groups for financial and/or volunteer help.
- U.S. Rep. Robert Lindsay Thomas has endorsed Glenn.
- Over 200 Georgians have volunteered to work on the Glenn Campaign.
- House Speaker Tom Murphy and Lt. Gov. Zell Miller have both endorsed former Governor Reubin Askew.
- Sen. Ernest Hollings has appointed a full-time co-ordinator in Georgia.
- Sen. Gary Hart has named Atlanta attorney David Garrett III as his co-ordinator in Georgia. Garrett is working on a volunteer basis from his office.

- Conservative Rep. Newt Gingrich, Georgia's only Republican congressman, has stated that gains by Sen. Alan Cranston in his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination represent the emergence of a new "radical" wing of the Democratic party.

STATE POLITICAL SUMMARY

U.S. Senate:

In 1984, incumbent Democrat Sam Nunn will be running for election for a third term. The entire Georgia Congressional delegation has endorsed Nunn, including Republican Rep. Newt Gingrich and Senator Mack Mattingly. No Republican opposition is expected.

Governor:

State Representative Joe Frank Harris, a conservative Democrat, defeated Republican state Senator Bob Bell by a 63% to 37% margin. Bell is now the State Chairman of Georgia's Republican party.

U.S. House of Representatives:     1 Republican
   9 Democrats

Key 1982 Congressional Election

1st C.D.       Southeast -- Savannah

Democrat Lindsay Thomas defeated Republican state Representative Herb Jones by a 65% to 35% margin. This seat was vacated by U.S. Rep. Bo Ginn who retired to run for governor.

4th C.D.       Atlanta

White Democrat Wyche Fowler won a third term by winning 80% of the vote over 2 black opponents. State Representative J.E. McKinney, the independent candidate, received only 13% of the vote, while Republican Paul Jones received 5%.

State legislature:

Republicans are in the minority in both houses of the state legislature. In 1982, however, the GOP did post a gain of 2 seats in the Senate, while recording no losses in the state House. The current party make-up is:

State Senate:	7 Republicans	49 Democrats
State House:	24 Republicans	156 Democrats

Municipal Elections:

- Macon, Georgia-
  - primary: September 18
  - runoff: October 4
  - genral election: November 8
- First-term Republican Mayor George Israel of Macon is considered a favorite for re-election.
- Israel is currently chairman of the National Conference of Republican Mayors.

STATE PARTY UPDATE

- On May 21, the Georgia Republican Party elected new officers.
  - Former state Senator Bob Bell retained his chairmanship of the party. Bell lost in his bid for the governorship in 1982.
  - Tom Hocaday, a professional political operative from Texas, has been hired as the new executive director in a total overhaul of the party's entire professional staff.
- Programs being developed by the party include:
  - new long term party plan for the '84 elections to cover 1 or 2 targeted Congressional races, legislative elections, and the presidential election. (Democrat Gov. Harris has admitted that wresting the southern region of the country away from Reagan will be extremely difficult.)
  - new long term financial plan.
  - targeted polling program.
  - organizing a strong voter identification program, especially in the suburban areas.
  - designing outreach into the rural/farm communities - especially difficult areas for Republicans in 1982.

CONGRESSMAN NEWT GINGRICH

(R-Georgia)

Congressman Gingrich is regarded by many of his Republican colleagues, particularly his contemporaries, as one of the more imaginative and innovative younger Members on issues of party concern. The Congressman has been a consistent supporter of the President, though he opposed the Administration on the issue of IMF. He has made recommendations on how Republicans might gain control of the House and how the Administration might present the Central American issue to the public to garner their support.

A member of the Public Works and Transportation and the House Administration Committees, Gingrich has taken an active interest in defense issues. An appropriate characterization would be that of a "reformer."

The Congressman is married and has two daughters. He received a Ph.D. degree from Tulane University and was on the faculty of West Georgia College. He is serving his third term representing west-central Georgia, and is on the Executive Committee of the National Republican Congressional Committee.

SENATOR MACK MATTINGLY (R-GEORGIA)

Senator Mack Mattingly was born January 7, 1931 in Anderson, Indiana. He served in the Air Force from 1951-1955, and attended college at Indiana University, graduating in 1957. He moved to Georgia from Indiana in 1959 to become a corporate executive with IBM. He currently resides in St. Simons Island, Georgia. Mattingly is married to the former Carolyn Longcamp and has two children.

Senator Mattingly became active in politics in the 1964 Goldwater Presidential campaign. In 1966 he ran unsuccessfully as a Republican for the U.S. House of Representatives, he then went into Republican organizational work serving as state party chairman from 1975-1977.

Mattingly defeated Senator Herman Talmadge, a Georgia institution, in 1980 with 51% of the vote. He is the first Republican Senator elected by popular vote in Georgia history and the state's first GOP Senator since reconstruction.

In the Senate, Mattingly serves on the Senate Appropriations Committee, where he chairs the Legislative Branch Subcommittee, the Governmental Affairs Committee, the Joint Economic Committee, and the Senate Select Committee on Ethics.

As Chairman of the Legislative Appropriations Subcommittee, Mattingly called for a 10% cut in Senate Committee expenditures thereby urging the Congress to tighten its belt just as the Administration was urging for the rest of the Government.

In the Senate, Mattingly has expressed a particular interest in trade policy. He visited with you earlier this year to discuss his specific thoughts on trade issues. Mattingly has consistently opposed tax increases of any kind during his service in the Senate.

Senator Mattingly has expressed some reservations about your Civil Rights Commission nominees.
