The President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Reagan:

Once again you have provided the thrill of a life-time to five of America's finest young men. Last week's Oval Office ceremony was the highlight of a year-long campaign that touches millions of Boys Clubs members, families, volunteers and staff.

I hope you were as impressed with our National Youth-of-the-Year as everyone else has been. Mark Perry has received extensive coverage by the media and he has continuously told them how impressed he was with you. He will undoubtedly continue to let the public know how impressive you were to him.

It is always a pleasure for me to enter the White House and observe as you install our Youth-of-the-Year. Next year's events include the installation ceremony sometime during the week of September 17. By planning this early, we hope to have the assistance of the White House in greatly expanding the positive media coverage which will surely be received from the event.

Thank you again for not only myself but for all of the staff of Boys Clubs of America.

Sincerely,
William R. Bricker
