What was your reaction when you first learned that the South Korean Airline carrying Americans had been shot down by a Soviet military fighter?

I feel that the Soviets are going to see just how far they can push us, & this is one of the steps to see if we are ready to stand up to them.

What do you think the United States, as a country, should do in reaction to the incident?

Take whatever steps are necessary to show them that we will not tolerate any such actions. We'll use, beyond that, and military strength should be shown.

What was your reaction when you first learned that the South Korean Airline carrying Americans had been shot down by a Soviet military fighter?

MY First reaction WAS one of SADNESS.
I wonder when the Free world will WAKE up, to what a threat COMMUNISM IS.

What do you think the United States, as a country, should do in reaction to the incident?

MAINTAIN CALM Above All. We need to TAKE Some type of diplomatic ACTION to Recompense this, but not let our emotions overrule
our Common sense,

What was your reaction when you first learned that the South Korean Airline carrying Americans had been shot down by a Soviet military fighter?

I feel that the Soviets jammed the airlines radio to get them off course and deliberately shot the plane down. I believe they knew Senator McDonald was on the plane, I feel it was planned murder. This action shows that the Soviets don't want peace and they never did. It is useless to sign treaties or even talk with them about peace.
What do you think the United States, as a country, should do in reaction to the incident?

It wouldn't hurt the Soviet govt to declare wheat embargos. It would only hurt the people. However we should cut off diplomatic relations, warn them that we will shot down Soviet plane in U.S. area, and it would help the U.S. to get the U.N. out of New York. Its location there is a detriment to our country.
We should strengthen our defenses against the USSR - that is the only way we can hurt them.
