MEMORANDUM FOR:

JAMES A. BAKER, III

FROM:

~~ELIZABETH A. DOLE~~ Faith Whittlesay

SUBJECT:

Weekly Summary Report ending 3-13-83

Portfolio Organizations

Manager Morton C. Blackwell

SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITIES

Speech for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce

Private lunch with Veterans Administrator Harry Walters.

Discussion with the Vice-President about liaison with conservative groups.

RED FLAGS

The March 10 Washington Post story has raised concern among conservative leaders that the Administration might back away from the President's pledge to stop federal funding of political advocacy.

Report from the House Democratic Caucus, has stirred conservative PAC's into action to defeat attempts to further limit citizens rights to organize and participate in politics. Looks like a big fight building.

MISCELLANEOUS

Very strong enthusiasm among conservative religious leaders for the President's speech in Orlando, Florida to the National Association of Evangelicals.

The President's decision to make a foreign policy speech to the National Association of Manufacturers convinced conservatives that the President is serious about regaining the initiative in foreign policy.

ADMINISTRATION PARTICIPANTS: MCB

SUMMARY: We discussed the current status of Pershing Hall in Paris, and the relationship between the VA, office of the Cabinet, and the Office of Public Liaison.

I made it clear that it is not our intent to oversee policy at the VA. We facilitate communication between veterans and the VA. We also work to get a concensus among veterans groups in support of national defence, economic issues etc.

This was a constructive meeting, building on an already established friendship.

SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITIES

- * MX missile briefing for pro-defense coalition.
- * Address to NCPAC Policy Board luncheon.

RED FLAGS

- * Conservative groups are alarmed at indications that the administration will place no serious emphasis on many of the non-economic issues that were integral to the President's 1980 campaign, but have had low priority for the past 2 years.

MISCELLANEOUS

- * VFW, American Legion and most pro-defense organizations have joined the fight for the MX "Dense Pack" system.
