WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM FOR: JAMES A. BAKER, III

FROM: ELIZABETH H. DOLE

SUBJECT: Weekly Summary Report ending 11-7-82
Indians, Veterans, Service Clubs
Portfolio Christian, Conservatives
Manager Morton C. Blackwell

SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITIES

- Remarks at Intercessors for America National Meeting
- Veterans Organizations introduction to Harry Walters

RED FLAGS

- Conservative organization leaders view lack of Congressional battles on "non-economic" issues as a major reason for 1982 apathy in lower middle class areas carried by Reagan supporters in 1980.
- Lack of Presidential event in Indian country is becoming damaging.

MISCELLANEOUS

- All three new Republican SENators are much more pro-life than their predecessors, and defeated GOP Senator Harrison Schmitt signed a fund raiser for Planned Parenthood.

SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITIES

1. Speech to National Prayer Conference at Airlie House.
2. Oval Office meeting with the President and Lions Clubs.
3. Presidential Citizens' Medal ceremony for Raymond Weeks.
4. White House representative for wreath laying at Arlington cemetery.

RED FLAGS

1. The grass roots conservative leaders feel that the White House is being sucked into another round of economic battles to the exclusion of issues which generate votes from traditional Democrats.
2. Delay in naming the successor to Robert Nimmo and the fear that Tom Harvey might be selected cause growing concern amongst major Veterans' organization leaders.

MISCELLANEOUS

3. Continued failure to schedule a Presidential event with Indians is damaging the Administration in Indian country.
