WHY YOU SHOULD OPPOSE THE FDR MEMORIAL:

1. FDR would have. In response to a question from Supreme Court Justice Black, Roosevelt once said that he only wanted as a monument "something that would be no larger than his desk." We already have such a monument, located at the southeast corner of 9th and Pennsylvania Avenue NW on the northside of the National Archives Building.
2. It's a boondoggle. It will cost $30 million to build and more than $1 million a year to operate.
3. It's ugly. A 1000 foot granite wall that meanders all over West Potomac Park. It should really be named the Taxpayer's Wailing Wall.
4. It's disgusting. When we're trying to dismantle the liberal welfare state, the mere thought of a monument to its creator is disgusting. If it is OK'd by President Reagan and becomes a reality, it will remain an eyesore to conservatives and taxpayers for time immemorial.

STATUS OF THE FDR MEMORIAL:

H.J. Res. 400, which appropriated the funds for the FDR memorial, was passed by the Senate earlier. It recieved House passage last Thursday. It has now gone to the President. Within the next ten days, he will make the critical decision of whether or not to sign or veto the bill.
