THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 28, 1983

MEETING WITH TUITION TAX CREDIT COALITION

DATE: Thursday, December 1, 1983
LOCATION: Cabinet Room
TIME: 3:30 p.m.
FROM: Faith Whittlesey

I. PURPOSE:

To thank these leaders for their hard work, and discuss future actions in light of the Senate tabling of the Tuition Tax Credit Bill --- particularly the long term prospects for passage.

II. BACKGROUND:

The tuition tax credit coalition has met with the President on two previous occasions, June 22, 1982 and September 16, 1983. They have pledged their support for the bill our staff hammered out with them, and recommended that the legislation be attached to a major House-passed revenue bill.

On November 16 the Senate tabled consideration of the legislation. The vote was 59 to 38, with Senator Baker among those voting to table.

For some time frustration has been high among tuition tax credit leaders. They appreciate the President's efforts, but they need assurance of continued support.

III. PARTICIPANTS:

See attached list.

IV. PRESS PLAN:

White House Press Corp photo opportunity during Presidential drop-by.

V. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS:

3:45 p.m. Guests enter Cabinet Room and are greeted by Faith Whittlesey

3:47 p.m. Mrs. Whittlesey turns meeting over to Mr. Meese for brief comments and to preside over discussion.

4:00 Presidential drop-by.

MEETING WITH TUITION TAX CREDIT COALITION

DATE: Thursday, December 1, 1983
LOCATION: Cabinet Room
TIME: 3:45 p.m.
FROM: Faith Whittlesey

I. PURPOSE:

To thank these leaders for their hard work, and discuss future actions in light of the Senate tabling of the Tuition Tax Credit Bill --- particularly the long term prospects for passage.

II. BACKGROUND:

The tuition tax credit coalition has met with the President on two previous occasions, June 22, 1982 and September 16, 1983. They have pledged their support for the bill our staff hammered out with them, and recommended that the legislation be attached to a major House-passed revenue bill.

On November 16 the Senate tabled consideration of the legislation. The vote was 59 to 38, with Senator Baker among those voting to table.

For some time frustration has been high among tuition tax credit leaders. They appreciate the President's efforts, but they need assurance of continued support.

III. PARTICIPANTS:

See attached list.

IV. PRESS PLAN:

White House Press Corp photo opportunity during Presidential drop-by.

V. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS:

3:45 p.m. Guests enter Cabinet Room and are greeted by Faith Whittlesey

3:47 p.m. Mrs. Whittlesey turns meeting over to Mr. Meese for brief comments and to preside over discussion.

4:00 Presidential drop-by.

4:20 Meeting ends.

MEMORANDUM TO: FAITH WHITTLESEY
THROUGH: Jack Courtemanche
FROM: Morton C. Blackwell
SUBJECT: Talking Points - Tuition Tax Credits

Attached are the talking points for the meeting with the President on Tuition Tax Credits.

MCB:jet

1 Attachment a/s

TALKING POINTS

TUITION TAX CREDITS

- Although we did not achieve victory, I am pleased that we got an up-or-down vote on tuition tax credits in the Senate.
- I was especially pleased because the various groups represented here today showed unity of purpose and a determination to work together.
- I view the Senate vote as the first step in a long term effort to get tuition tax credits through the Congress, and I am firmly committed to this goal.
- I have some thoughts as to what we should do next, but the main reason I have asked you to this meeting is to get your suggestions. Before I get your views, here are my thoughts.
- This IS a long term effort and winning will require constant attention by all of us in this coalition, at every level of government and in the private sector.
- First, candidates for office must be made aware that tuition tax credits is not just another issue that came and went. You have the capability of making this issue come alive in every race.

- At the Federal level, we will continue to keep our tuition tax credit bill before the Senate. I will keep speaking out on the issue. At the right time and in consultation with you, I will ask Senator Baker to schedule another vote on our bill soon.

- Prior to the next vote, we should have longer notice as to the scheduled vote and as to the legislative vehicle we will use. In that way we can better coordinate efforts within the Administration and among your groups.

- At the State level, supporters of tuition tax credits should take the Supreme Court's decision in the Minnesota case this year as a green light for action. The Court has opened the door for a range of State tuition tax plans that may have been stalled by fear that they would not survive Supreme Court review.

- At the local level, tuition tax credits are simply one more aspect of our overall push for parental control of education.

- We will continue our efforts to affirm that education is the primary right and responsibility of the parents and that government is here to serve the choices they make for the education of their children.

- I look forward to working with you to make this principle a reality for all students and parents.

- Those are my thoughts. Now, I want to get the benefit of your suggestions and comments.

John
