On behalf of President Reagan, I wish to extend to you a most cordial invitation to attend a briefing to be followed by refreshments at the White House on April 27, 1982, at 1:15 p.m. Please enter the Southwest Gate and RSVP 202/456-2193 with Social Security number and date of birth. Please reply no later than April 23 at 5:00 p.m.

The briefing will concern the President's Task Force on Private Sector Initiatives and the potential areas of achievement and cooperation for national service leaders in this effort.

To supplement your participation in this sharing and exchange of information, you are also invited to send a brief description of your organization's best examples of community service. Your program descriptions will be distributed to others in attendance as an informational aide in replicating your best experiences. If you wish please send 150 copies of your brief written program descriptions (pre-printed reports are suitable) to Morton Blackwell at the White House, Washington, D.C. 20500

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

DATE: April 9, 1982

TO: Jay Moorhead

FROM: Wendy Borchardt W.B.

SUBJECT: National Collaboration for Youth

I believe that the National Collaboration for Youth should be invited to the April 27th briefing. Although they are a member group of the National Assembly (which I understand is being invited), they do deal specifically with youth activities, and we should include a particular representative of that age group in our society.

The invitation should be addressed to Mary Frances Peter, Washington Representative, National Collaboration for Youth, 1725 K Street, N. W., Suite 1003, Washington, D. C. 20006. If you should need the phone number, it is 202-466-5430.
