Dear President Reagan:

I have been notified that the nomination of Helen Marie Taylor to serve on the board of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting has been blocked due to politics. I believe that due to her traditional, family-oriented values she would be an excellent person to be appointed. In recent years, PBS programming has begun to espouse humanistic philosophy, and Mrs. Taylor would help to represent the more American, traditional value system.

Thank you for your efforts in assuring her nomination.

Sincerely,

Dear President Reagan,

I fully approve, support, and urge, that Helen Marie Taylor serve on the board of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

Your nomination of her, while a very good first step, requires final confirmation by others. You must give her your strongest backing as people like her are desperately needed in such positions of responsibility.

Immorality, outright lech, anti family and anti religious shows and programs have run rampant and require a cool headed, reasonable, family oriented point of view to put some balance in the media.

Don't give in to political pressure on this one. It's of much too great importance.

Yours truly,

Dear President Reagan:

I very definitely support the choice of Helen Taylor to serve on the board of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, and hope that you get to name people on that board to replace the ones who must be now responsible for the disgusting programming now being aired.

P.S.
They

Lately, my son and I have tried to watch some of the plays on WPBT in Miami, because of the junk on network television, and could not believe what they are showing. For two nights in a row the glorification of homosexuals, and the ridicule of marriage, business, patriotism was the theme of these programs...promoting children outside of marriage and bi-sexual relations as well as welfare states. It was so upsetting to see what this medium has come to. My very best regards and wishes to yo

Sally Prescott

P.S. to Mr. Blackwell

One other thought - Washington Week in Review is nothing more than a ridiculing of Ronald Reagan, roundtable discussion... with noone, ever, to take up for you or your policies. Each media person on the discussion panel is totally for the liberal-leftist policies and make no bones about it. This is disgusting and should tomorrow be remedied by making it at least fifty fifty. What is Public Broadcasting? The tool of the Democrats? Can the Republicans reap ~~xxx~~ what they have earned...representation according to the percentage of the American voters who asked for changes? There have been none on Public TV... it becomes more left each day...more radical and perverse. The Democrats don't own this part of our government...we all do. It is high time someone got furious and laid down the law that enough is enough and conservatives will have a voice. My neighbors ask me..."What good is it to vote Republican again, when nothing on public broadcasting changes?" Two years is long enough to make these changes. You may not be able to change the networks, but don't let anyone tell us that the party cannot get its representation on public TV...no matter what the liberal think or say. It is an outrage...that these men and women actually laugh at you and your policies and delight in any small defeat openly and without shame. Please get tough, mean or whatever it takes...but if we don't do it now...that is our last chance.

Dear Mr. President,

There are a few things I'd like to say in this letter.

First, I am 39 years old, white, married, with two children. Our income is $30,000 +

For some time now I have been concerned over the content (or lack of it) on TV. I've stopped watching television for the most part because of the above.

However, I do watch PBS and it would be nice to know someone is on the board who is concerned with good quality and good moral values on TV. It always astounds me that so much of the seamy side of life can be and is aired by networks and yet if someone wants to show good, God-fearing people on TV it is generally met with arguments and demonstrations voicing concern that Church and State are converging. I often wonder what the founders of our country would think.

For these reasons I hope you will urge PBS to include Helen Marie Taylor on their board. We have to stand up for what we believe in . . . someone once said "All it takes for evil to triumph is for good people everywhere to do nothing."

Thank you for this opportunity to give my opinion.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Please stand by the nomination of Helen Marie Taylor to the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. With PBS' commitment to children's and family-oriented programming, her perspective is sorely needed.

Dear President Reagan,

I urge you to let nothing stand in the way, for appointing Helen Marie Taylor, to serve on the board of the Corporation for public broadcasting system. Dear Sir:

It is distressing to see the nomination of Mrs. Helen Taylor to serve on the Board of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting System blocked because of petty politics. She is an excellent choice and represents traditional family oriented causes. Surely her views are a much needed balance to the Board. It is appalling that with $139,000,000 of taxpayer's funds at stake, there is no place on this Board for someone representing the traditional value system.

Please do all you can to help her in this or we will find that the Public Broadcasting System will become nothing more than a repeat of the slanted, biased views offered by the networks.

NFD has asked its readership to appeal to you directly, Mr. President, so that Helen Marie Taylor, your nominee to serve on the board of the Corp. for Public Broadcasting will be affirmed. There is concern that some would like to block this appointment according to the May 1983 Informer.

Mr. President, our nation has seen you go to work vigorously to get a job done, and you have emerged with impressive triumphs. Please do not allow good and decent people to be kept from positions of influence because of selfish politics. Much of modern T.V. presents a harmful message. Families are being hurt by this.
