Dear Betsy:

It was a pleasure to meet you on my trip to Philadelphia last week. Unfortunately, there are no vacancies on my staff at the present time nor do we have any internships at this time.

I suggest that you contact Senator Specter and Senator Heinz, as well as Congressman Lawrence Coughlin, who represents your congressional district. I have listed their addresses on the attached sheet. There may be openings in their offices at a later date, if not now.

In addition, I also suggest that you volunteer to work in the upcoming presidential campaign. I am sure the paid positions are scarce but the experience, as a volunteer, would be invaluable. I have sent your letter to the newly opened Re-election Committee Headquarters for the President and suggest you contact that office directly as soon as possible. The address is on the attachment.

We very much need your continued support and do appreciate all your past efforts. I wish you success, and please give my warm greetings to your parents.

Sincerely,

Faith Ryan Whittlesey
Assistant to the President for
Public Liaison
