OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
JAMES T. DRAPER, JR.

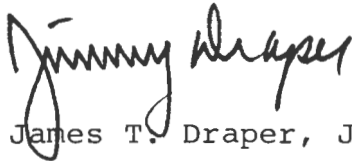

October 18, 1982

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

It is my privilege to recommend to you Dr. Lou Otto. I have known him for a number of years and worked very closely with him as a fellow pastor and minister in this area. I have watched his family in many different circumstances and have great confidence in them.

I would encourage you to give every consideration to using this outstanding man in your church. You would not be disappointed. We will be praying for you.

In His love,

James T. Draper, Jr.

JTD/mn

John R. Bisagno
Pastor

It is a pleasure to recommend my dear friend, Ludwig Otto, as an evangelist.

I had the privilege of seeing him mature as a layman in our church, ordain him, and then see him graduate from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and become a fine pastor.

Brother Otto would do you a good job.

Sincerely,

John R. Bisagno

TAPE OF THE MONTH

As the president of a ministry that has supporters in 30 states and 123 cities, I find that many hours are spent in listening to others express negative attitudes on major issues. There seems to be an emphasis in Christian life on the negative. Why I can't share my faith in Jesus! Why I can't cope with my family or spouse! How can I possibly do anything to stop the creeping tide of Humanism; government sponsored abortions; and smutty, violent TV programs? What do I know about creationism versus evolution being taught in our public schools! Is Jesus really coming again soon!

The purpose of these monthly tapes is to give answers to Christians concerning these issues and many more.

Let's eliminate negative thinking. Being a born again believer in the Lord Jesus Christ is the most positive position a person can be in. God has a purpose for our lives. Let's explore that purpose together through this monthly series of tapes.

 Let the Church obey His Voice

To subscribe to the tape of the month of timely Biblical messages that speak to today's issues, send an offering of any amount. This is a grace ministry supported completely by your contributions. Contributions are tax-deductible and appreciated.

INTRODUCING
EVANGELIST
DR. LUDWIG OTTO

Early in 1953 my friend Ludwig sat in Stillmans' Gym in New York City on 8th Avenue. He was surrounded by his trainers, Whitey Bimstein and Freddie Brown. Rocky Graziano, the former Middleweight Champion, looked on as Freddie Brown removed the bandages from young Otto's hands. There was a jubilant air in the room. Ludwig had just finished sparring with Archie Moore, the Light Heavyweight Champ, and had turned in a good showing. As an undefeated professional prizefighter Ludwig had been rated the outstanding prospect in the Light Heavyweight division by Ring Magazine. He was on his way to boxing stardom. But there was something missing in his life.

During 1962 Ludwig was computer management executive with the National Cash Register Company. He was responsible for all 390 computer programming and business systems designing in the United States and Canada. A graduate of the City University of New York, he holds a Bachelor of Arts from that university and a Bachelor of Law from the Blackstone School of Law. At 28 years of age he was traveling extensively. But there was something missing in his life.

In April of 1970 Ludwig Otto met with Joaquim Balaquer, President of the Dominican Republic. The room was filled with unspoken tension. Machine gun armed guards stood outside the doors of the Presidential Palace as Communist Revolutionaries threatened to topple the Pro-American Government. Later that night Ludwig Otto and his wife Sara and several Diplomats would flee the capital city of Santo Domingo for the relative safety of Boca Chico. As President and Chairman of the Board of a National Computer Company, Ludwig Otto was a millionaire and had been successful in introducing a novel new method of computerized constructin to President Balaquer. But something was missing in his life.

Then in January of 1971 Ludwig met Jesus Christ and life completely changed for him. God gave him a new life. He holds both a Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Since he met Jesus Christ his burning desire is to share with others what it means to be "born again" and how they can grow in the Lord Jesus.

He has pastored four great churches before responding to God's call to full-time evangelism. He is available to speak in your church, civic group or other place of meeting.
