Mr. Stephen Galebach

Dear Stephen:

Thanks so much for agreeing to speak to our students in the American Studies Program. As we discussed on the phone, we would appreciate hearing about the President's proposals on voluntary school prayer and the right to life. Since our course of study this month is a review of the administration's first two years, whatever remarks you might wish to make about the goals and rationale of the President's approach to these two social issues would be very helpful.

I know you mentioned 30 minutes as a time frame for our session. May I please request at least 45 minutes? Of course, any amount of time we may have with you will be most beneficial, but it would be better for us if you could take 20 minutes or so to brief us on the President's positions and then allow us 20 minutes for questions. Actually, Steve, we will be most appreciative for whatever time you can spend with us. We will plan to be settled into Room 194, OEOR, by 2:25pm at thus be ready for you at 2:30pm.

Again, let me thank you for allowing us the opportunity for this White House Briefing. I am looking forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Jerry S. Herbert
