FIRST LADY'S INTRODUCTION OF THE PRESIDENT is the
NATIONAL FEDERATION OF REPUBLICAN WOMEN

Thank you. . .He looks pretty confident I'm going to give him a good introduction, doesn't he. . .I'll let you in on a little secret. . .he wasn't quite so confident the first time I introduced him to my father.

But instead of introducing the dynamic leader we all admire. . .let me present a kind, loving husband. . . and a pushover of a father. . .The President of the United States.

RE Request for remarks for the First Lady

Mrs. Reagan has been asked to introduce the President at the National Federation of Republican Women's conference on Friday, September 18.

The last time Mrs. Reagan introduced the President was in New York during the campaign. Below is what she said that evening and was comfortable with.

"And now, I have been asked to make an introduction that I have never made before. I know I am his number one fan. I have often said and often been teased about it, that my life really began with him, but it really is true. I am a very lucky girl.

"I like him, I respect him, I trust him, I love him, and I am so proud of him I could pop. My husband."

May I have your suggested remarks for her introduction by Wednesday, September 16?
Thanks very much.
