I was really happy I made the cover of Newsweek--if only they'd left out the contents.

I won't say the article was biased. But I noticed the story on me was between stories about a rapist and the crackdown in Poland.

As much press as I generate, you would think I wore the tattoo "Born to Raise Hell."

Well, I tell you, I have mixed feelings on this Nancy Reagan I read about. You'd think my maiden name was Hapsburg.
