Dear Ms. Griffin:

I am writing to strongly recommend Ms. Cheryl Watkins for participation on the National Drug Advisory Board.

Ms. Watkins is the Director and founder of the Chemical Awareness Training Institute located in Phoenix, Arizona. Through her position in this organization, Ms. Watkins has initiated and organized nationwide drug and alcohol abuse awareness programs. Her strong dedication and expertise in developing a national network to bring attention to this chronic problem make her an excellent candidate for the Board.

Enclosed is information which more fully outlines Ms. Watkins' participation in this area. It is especially important to note that Ms. Watkins has expertise, not only in program development and public relations, but also in successfully working with the state legislature in obtaining funding for statewide implementation of the "Chemical Awareness" program in our state.

I request your utmost consideration on behalf of Ms. Watkins. I am certain you will find that her professional background, dedication and commitment to establishing effective drug awareness programs would be a vital asset to the National Drug Advisory Board.

I would like to take this opportunity to recommend Mr. William B. Taylor for your consideration for an appointment to serve on the USAFA Board of Visitors.

I am sure you will find him, as I did, an individual who seems uniquely qualified for the position. Mr. Taylor has organized and was Secretary to the Board of Visitors for its first three years. He also served as one of the Founding Fathers of U.S. Air Force Academy. Mr. Taylor is a dedicated and loyal Republican who has vigorously supported the policies of this administration.

Dear John:

You and Cindy were good to think of me at Christmas, and I want you to know how pleased I am by your particular kindness. Thank you for remembering me with the wonderful compilation of Arizona Highways. Your holiday gift is indeed appreciated, and I'm most grateful for the generous friendship that prompted it.

Nancy joins me in sending you and Cindy our very best wishes for a peaceful and happy future,

Sincerely,

RON
