BY HAND

Mr. Tim McNamar
President-Elect Transition Office
1726 M Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036

Dear Tim:

You asked for my suggestions for key appointments at the Department of Justice. I have made inquiries at Harvard, Yale, Michigan, Chicago and Stanford, as well as in the private sector. My criteria has been quality and competence mindful of the desirability of geographic dispersion. The recommendations are attached along with copies of published resumes in Martindale-Hubbell, Who's Who and/or Directory of Law Teachers.

All of the persons suggested are outstanding; in some instances the personal involvement of Bill Smith will be required to persuade them to come to Washington. But I think it can be done, and such successful recruitment will be well worth the time and effort. For example, to have Charles Meyers, Dean of the Stanford Law School, head the Lands Division would be a substantial accomplishment.

Good luck with your efforts. Let me know if I can assist further. Every best wish for the holidays.

Sincerely,

Carla A. Hills

Enclosures

P.S. I will continue to reflect on the remaining positions and be in touch if I have a worthy suggestion.

Dear Mr. Meese:

We are writing today to express the highest possible endorsement of the National Italian American Foundation for Mr. Antonin Scalia for the position of either Solicitor General or Chairman of the Federal Communications Commission.

Mr. Scalia has a uniquely distinguished record of high level public service and academic achievement, accompanied by unusually brilliant intellectual capacity. A graduate of Georgetown University and Harvard University School of Law, he is currently a professor of law at the University of Chicago School of Law. He has also been a professor of law at the University of Virginia School of Law.

Dear Pen:

I very much enjoyed the opportunity to meet with you at Mil Batten's lunch and appreciated your thoughtful note.

Needless to say, I couldn't be happier that all of the impressive planning efforts that you have made will now be put to very good use.

I have been considering the areas in which I might be able to make some suggestions and am writing to do so now.

I have not discussed the subject with any of the people involved and, therefore, have no basis of knowing the level of their interest or availability.

- 1. FCC: Of the three republican commissioners, I believe that only Anne Jones is qualified for consideration as chairman. President Reagan will have an opportunity to fill the position currently held by Commissioner Quello as a holdover, and I would recommend John W. Pettit, a former General Counsel of the FCC, as a candidate for that post.

I would be glad to review with you the reasons I do not believe that either Commissioner Lee or Commissioner Washburn, the two other republicans on the Commission, should be considered for chairmanship of the Commission.

2. FTC: For the Federal Trade Commission, of the two republicans on the Commission, we would recommend David Clanton as the superior choice for chairman. When a vacancy occurs, I believe Antonin Scalia, from all reports, might be a worthy candidate.
3. ITC: For the International Trade Commission, I suggest Luke Gladstone Williams as a candidate.
David Hartquist, who I am sure has also come to your attention as a result of his service in the Nixon and Ford administrations, might also be considered for a high position in ITC.
4. NTIA: For the Assistant Secretary of Commerce to head the National Telecommunications and Information Administration, we would recommend Dale Hatfield.
5. Secretary of Commerce: Howard W. Blauvelt serves on our Board of Directors, and I consider him our most valuable director and, therefore, would very much regret losing him to government. He is 63 years old and has recently retired as Chairman of Conoco. He is an extremely capable executive with a strong financial background and a very hard nose. I believe he could make a real contribution to government if he were willing to serve.
6. Assistant Secretary of Defense or Assistant Secretary of the Navy: We have a highly qualified manager in our Electronic Systems Group who is very highly recommended to me by his management and who is interested in government service at some time.

I am attaching brief biographical information of one sort or another on all the people that I have mentioned.

Best wishes for great success in your undertaking. The Country needs it. If I can be of any assistance in any follow-up efforts, please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

Theodore F. Brophy

I have received a number of calls from friends of mine in the Antitrust Division of the ABA with a variety of recommendations for the Department of Justice, which I shall pass on to you.

1. Mark Berens, who is a senior partner in Lee Abrams firm in Chicago, has been recommended by a group of people for the position of Deputy Attorney General. Lee Abrams is a very good friend of mine and he also called and highly recommended Berens and told me that Berens is very interested in the position.

2. Antonin Scalia has been recommended by Ira Millstein, of Weil, Gotshal & Manges, of New York, for the position of Solicitor General. I gather that he has been recommended by others as well for the same position. He formerly was head of the Office of Legal Counsel of the Department of Justice, a former Chairman of the Administrative Conference of the United States, and presently is a professor of law at the University of Chicago.

3. Richard K. Willard was recommended by Brien Dillon, of Baker & Botts. He is interested in a position in the Attorney General's office or on the White House staff. His resume' is enclosed, together with a copy of Brien Dillon's letter to me.

Two people have been recommended for the position as Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission:

1. Edwin S. Rockefeller, of Bierbower & Rockefeller, Washington, D.C. Ed was Secretary of the FTC during the Eisenhower Administration and is a former Chairman of the Antitrust Section of the ABA. He has written a book on FTC practice and procedure which is in its second or third printing. He is very much a conservative and is highly regarded in antitrust circles.

2. Ernest Gellhorn, whose Career Narrative is enclosed and self-explanatory. I believe he is presently a professor of law at the University of Virginia. He also is a conservative. He has a thorough background in antitrust matters and is highly regarded in that area of the law.

I have talked further with Bill Barnett who, you will recall, was No. 1 on my list (with the exception of Bob Cooper) for the position of Attorney General In Charge of the Antitrust Division. Bill asked that his name be stricken from the list as he does not feel he can leave the practice of law at Baker & Botts. He is presently Chairman of the Antitrust Section and is willing to help in any way he can to assist you in connection with antitrust enforcement.

The Honorable Ronald Reagan

Dear President Reagan:

The National Italian-American Bar Association wishes to convey our recommendation to you on behalf of Judge Antonin Scalia for any vacancies that may arise in the United States Supreme Court.

Our association is made up of over twenty affiliated bar associations in the major metropolitan areas of our country along with thousands of individual attorneys.

We are advised that Judge Scalia is already under close consideration by you as you are aware of his outstanding credentials.

While we believe that any appointment must be made on the nominees credentials and abilities and not his ancestry, we also believe that by the appointment of Judge Scalia, you would be choosing an outstanding jurist and be the first President to ever appoint a person of Italian heritage. As the Italian-American is probably the largest ethnic minority in our country, a land that was discovered by one and named after one we believe that it certainly is time after over two centuries to consider the appointment of the first Italian-American to our highest court.

Judge Scalia has the support of the Italian-American community and deserves your most careful consideration.

Very truly yours,

Richard K. Cacioppo
President, National Italian-American

Dear President Reagan:

The National Italian-American Bar Association, representing Italian-American attorneys throughout the entire United States, requests that you consider the appointment of Judge William J. Giovan of the Wayne County Circuit Court to the United States District Court in Detroit.

Judge Giovan is highly respected throughout Michigan by attorneys, fellow jurists and the public and is held in equal high esteem by our membership.

We urge his appointment as we believe Judge Giovan possesses all the attributes to be one of your wisest appointments and will most certainly bring dignity and competence to the federal bench.
