THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 30, 1981

Dear Mr. Di Massa:

Thank you for your letter of June 22, 1981 to the President recommending the Honorable Malcolm R. Wilkey to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court of the United States created by the announcement of the retirement of Associate Justice Potter Stewart.

As you are probably aware, the President has announced his intention to nominate the Honorable Sandra D. O'Connor for the position. The President was presented with a most difficult decision, as there were many extremely well qualified individuals to consider.

We very much appreciate your time and concern in writing to the President regarding this important appointment and bringing the outstanding attributes of Malcolm Wilkey to his attention.

Sincerely,

Fred F. Fielding

Dear Mr. President:

Just a few days ago I had the pleasure of meeting your daughter Patricia and having her as a guest on our show. Several weeks ago I had the opportunity to meet your daughter Maureen when she guested on our show. I wanted to take this opportunity to let you know that you have raised two of the finest young women I have met since I started in this business. You should be a very proud parent, and as our children are a reflection of our souls, I feel this country is most fortunate to have a man of your quality as its leader.

The purpose of this letter is to tell you of another fine American. A judge who I would like you to consider for appointment to The Supreme Court. He is in the D.C. Circuit of the United States Court of Appeals and his name is The Honorable Malcolm R. Wilkey.

I have had the pleasure of knowing Judge Wilkey for six years. My wife worked for him in Washington for five years previous to that. We have both found him to be a most impressive man. I also think you will find that his record is impeccable and that his ideologies are much like your own.

I'm sure the judge would be most embarrassed to know that I wrote to you on his behalf, but he is just the type of man this country needs.

Thank you for your dedication, strength and love of our home land. I'm looking forward to these next eight years as a renewal of all that our country stands for and I am looking to you as the man who will take us there.

Sincerely,

E.V. Di Massa, Jr.

The Honorable Ronald Reagan

Dear Mr. President:

Michigan Republicans have long been proud of the outstanding record Michigan Supreme Court Chief Justice Mary Coleman has provided in this state. This highly respected jurist became the first female to lead the judicial branch of any state government in the country in 1978 because she is so highly regarded. She was overwhelmingly reelected last fall by the people of Michigan and again has been elected Chief Justice by her court peers.

Mary Coleman previously served as an outstanding Probate Judge in Battle Creek, Michigan. As evidence of that record she was unanimously endorsed for reelection last fall by the Probate & Juvenile Judges Association of Michigan. She is the only family court justice on Michigan's high court today and would become the only family court member of the U.S. Supreme Court if appointed.

We urge your consideration and appointment of Michigan's Chief Justice Mary Coleman to replace Justice Stewart. Chief Justice Coleman's appointment would guarantee that the Sixth District would continue to have excellent representation on the high court.

Dear Mr. Maselli:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 22 to President Reagan.

Your recommendation regarding the appointment of an Italian American to the Supreme Court has been forwarded to the Attorney General, to whom President Reagan has assigned the task of preparing a list of suitable names. I am confident that your request will be given all due consideration.

Thank you for writing.

Sincerely,

Dear President Reagan:

On my own personal behalf and as National President of the National Italian American Coordinating Committee (NIACA) an umbrella organization representing over 5,000,000 Americans of Italian descent, I most respectfully call upon you to appoint a qualified American of Italian descent to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Such an appointment will correct a wrong that is as old as the court itself; a wrong that has been perpetuated by administration after administration - Republican and Democrat! An ethnic group of over twenty-three million in number, whose ancestors gave their corpus juris to the entire world certainly merits an appointment to the Supreme Court of the United States.

On Saturday, June 20, 1981, member organization of NIACA from New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Illinois, Florida, California, Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas and Arizona met in Washington D.C. and authorized me to write this communication on their behalf.

Respectfully yours,

Joseph Maselli

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 30, 1981

Dear Mayor Murphy:

Thank you for your letter of June 22, 1981 to the President recommending the Honorable Mary Ann Richey to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court of the United States created by the announcement of the retirement of Associate Justice Potter Stewart.

As you are probably aware, the President has announced his intention to nominate the Honorable Sandra D. O'Connor for the position. The President was presented with a most difficult decision, as there were many extremely well qualified individuals to consider.

We very much appreciate your time and concern in writing to the President regarding this important appointment and bringing the outstanding attributes of Mary Ann Richey to his attention.

Sincerely,

Fred F. Fielding
Counsel to the President

Dear Mr. President:

You will soon have the unique and significant responsibility of filling a vacancy on the U. S. Supreme Court. I know that there are many qualified applications throughout the country for this position and feel a bit presumptuous in adding my two cents' worth. I would feel remiss, however, if I did not mention to you a lady for your consideration whose conservative philosophy, legal ability and judicial experience are without equal in my opinion.

I speak of Mary Ann Richey, a Federal District judge in Region 9 sitting in Tucson, Arizona. I will not take the time here to enumerate her many personal and professional qualifications other than to state that she is uniquely outstanding and from what I know of your political, personal and philosophical bent, I feel she would fill the bill in exemplary fashion.

Please consider adding Mrs. Richey to your list of considerations with the knowledge that she would do you and our country great credit for years to come.

Sincerely,

L. C. Murphy

Dear Mr. President:

May I presume to suggest a candidate for nomination to the United States Supreme Court? Judge Howard T. Markey, now serving as Chief Judge of the United States Court of Customs and Patent Appeals, is one of the most outstanding human beings I have ever met. Besides being a great lawyer and a great judge, he was one of America's first Air Force test pilots to fly the jet aircraft. He holds the rank of Major General in the Air Force Reserve, and need I say, is intellectually committed to the pro-life position which you and I share. He fully meets the requirements as set forth in our Republican Party Platform.

Judge Markey would be a luminous addition to the Supreme Court, and would reflect great credit on yourself for nominating him.

Warmest regards always,

Very truly yours,

July 15, 1981

Dear Bill,

I can't tell you how much your letter of support and friendship has meant to me. To have learned of the confidence that you and the good people of Oklahoma have expressed in our program for economic recovery adds to my determination that our goals will be achieved. I found your remarks regarding our judicial system to be very incisive and knowledgeable. You do seem to speak from personal experience and you definitely mirror my opinion that the entire judicial system needs some very extensive overhauling.

Many thanks for your get-well message. My recovery is complete, I am happy to say.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

STATE OF OKLAHOMA

June 23, 1981

President Ronald Reagan
The White House
Washington, D. C., 20500

Dear Mr. President:

I have intended to write you for some time to express my pleasure in the way you are directing our country. Upon hearing that you will now have the opportunity to name your first appointment to the U. S. Supreme Court, it seemed an appropriate time since that matter is of vital concern to me as well as many other citizens.

First, let me say that I, as well as many other citizens in Oklahoma, am extremely pleased with your program and the manner in which you are administering it. A great many of us who had followed you for many years had no doubt that you would keep your campaign promises. However, as Vice-President Bush recently said, it is a radical concept to some people when a President does. You and your administration have renewed a great many peoples' faith in the American dream. You certainly have my support in your economic recovery program as well as in many other areas.

As a legislator vitally interested in the proper Federal-State relationship and as a lawyer concerned in the direction many federal court decisions have taken this country in the last four decades, I would consider your Supreme Court appointments as important as any decisions you make as President. I know from your remarks that you feel the same way. As you recently indicated, federal judges have too long been making law by judicial fiat, instead of merely interpreting the law.

If any appointment should be completely separated from political considerations it is the appointment of Supreme Court Justices. It should not matter whether a candidate for that office is Republican or Democrat, white or black, man or woman, but the prime consideration and criteria is I believe: that the candidate be the best possible person available to accept the office. If a superior candidate is rejected because he or she is of the wrong sex, or the wrong race, the country is the loser. I believe your criteria is ideal for the consideration of such appointments.

In the above regard, Thomas Jefferson who was a very outspoken critic of the judiciary in his day once wrote:

President Ronal Reagan
Washington, D. C. 20500
June 23, 1981

"On every question of construction, carry ourselves back to the time when the Constitution was adopted, recollect the spirit manifested in the debates and instead of trying what meaning may be squeezed out of the text, or invented against it, conform to the probable one in which it was passed." Ford, The Writings of Thomas Jefferson, X 231 (1899)

All too often nowadays, federal judges, particularly Supreme Court Justices, do not adhere to the wisdom of Jefferson, but instead use their own social, economic or personal philosophy as their guide for Constitutional construction. When that occurs, the will of the People, whom Madison called the ultimate authority, is subverted and Republican government denied.

If the complex Constitutional problems created by forty years of destructive judicial precedents are ever to be corrected, our nations' highest court needs new justices who will not just sit and affirm these precedents, but will reverse them. I wish you Godspeed in your search for the highest qualified people to sit on the Supreme Court.

In closing, let me add that when you were wounded by the gunman, you inspired the whole nation by the manner in which you reacted to the situation. The nation is thankful to God for your seemingly quick recovery. If that recovery is not total (although it seems to be), I hope it soon is.

Please keep up the good work.

Very truly yours,

July 28, 1981

Dear Senator Monier:

Thank you for your letter of June 22, 1981 to the President recommending the Honorable David H. Souter to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court of the United States created by the announcement of the retirement of Associate Justice Potter Stewart.

As you are probably aware, the President has announced his intention to nominate the Honorable Sandra D. O'Connor for the position. The President was presented with a most difficult decision, as there were many extremely well qualified individuals to consider.

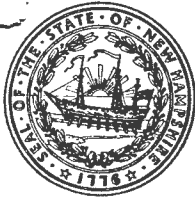

We very much appreciate your time and concern in writing to the President regarding this important appointment and bringing the outstanding attributes of the Honorable David H. Souter to his attention.

Sincerely,

Fred F. Fielding
Counsel to the President

Dear Mr. President:

Although I am certain that you presently are considering many outstanding candidates to fill the vacancy on the U.S. Supreme Court created by the resignation of Associate Justice Potter Stewart, I am writing to urge your serious consideration of a superlative New Hampshire justice for this appointment, also. The Honorable David H. Souter of Weare, Associate Justice of the New Hampshire Superior Court.

While I will comment more directly on this nominee below, I think it appropriate to note that no New Englander is currently a member of the Court, nor has there been an appointment from this region for many years. While our distinguished former Chief Justice of the New Hampshire Supreme Court, the late Frank R. Kenison, was considered seriously for appointment to the Supreme Court by President Eisenhower, New Hampshire has not figured strongly even in speculation about an appointment for many years. I request that you take mind of this factor and the need for geographical balance on the Court in your deliberations.

Justice Souter, 41, has served on the New Hampshire Superior Court since 1978. Prior to that, he served with distinction as the Attorney General of New Hampshire, succeeding now-Senator Warren Rudman in that position in 1976, having been Rudman's Deputy Attorney General for five years prior to that. Justice Souter is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Harvard University and the Harvard Law School, and was a Rhodes Scholar. Prior to joining the Attorney General's office, he practiced law privately in Concord.

David Souter is a brilliant, conservative judge who understands the way government operates. He is a strict, although reasonable, constructionist who recognizes the appropriate role of the courts in our society. He is articulate and writes with force and persuasion. In my judgement, he would be recognized in a short time as an outstanding member of the Supreme Court.

I am pleased to be able to recommend this excellent man to you. His ability, preception and youth make him an exceptional candiate and warrants, I believe, his serious consideration for this and for future vacancies.

Very truly yours,

Robert B. Monier, President
New Hampshire State Senate
