The President
The White House
Washington, D.C.

R. R. R.

Dear Mr. President:

I take the liberty of expressing my congratulations, which I am sure are shared by thousands, for your appointment of Judge Sandra Day O'Connor to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court. People are pleased that you alone have promptly met the statement you made during your campaign, and in doing so you emphasized that Judge O'Connor and any of your appointments to the Supreme Court will be selected on the basis of their high qualifications for the position.

I have had the opportunity in two nonpolitical speeches, one in Kentucky and one in Tennessee, to speak for support of your programs, and I found support.

With best wishes,

Respectfully,

John Sherman Cooper

Dear President Reagan:

On behalf of the Women's Equity Action League, I would like to commend you on your nomination of Judge Sandra D. O'Connor for the United States Supreme Court. The range of support Judge O'Connor has received from women's and Civil rights groups, Arizona legislators, and the Bar Association indicates widespread faith in her qualifications and her judgment.

This nomination clearly marks a historic moment for women and for the nation as a whole--a visible demonstration of America's commitment to equal opportunity for women and men. WEAL has been concerned about the small number of women appointed to fill key positions in your administration, and we hope that the appointment of Judge O'Connor augurs well for an increased and visible role for women in federal policy-making positions.

Judge O'Connor epitomizes the American woman who successfully pursues a career and fulfills family responsibilities. She will serve as an important role model for American women and men, having combined hard work, respect for the law, and concern for the family.

Again, congratulations on your fine choice.

Sincerely,

Carol Burroughs Grossman

Dear President Ron: RE: HON. SANDRA O'CONNOR

As you may recall when we served together as governors, my credentials as a conservative Republican are creditable.

I appointed Judge O'Connor to the Arizona State Senate in 1969--her first political post and never regretted it. She became majority leader of a conservative Republican Legislature.

It is true that in a legislature one casts a number of votes that are not indicative of one's personal inclinations.

One "votes with the majority"; one votes because a constituency demands it; one votes in order to get another vote across the aisle. A majority leader must frequently adjust to the "art of the possible".

You have made a good appointment. The number of letters you are getting from groups that I have supported and who are now opposed to Judge O'Connor are the usual result of a "tempest in a tea-pot".

The "Right To Lifers" and the "Moral Majority" who have positions with which I agree are 'way off base; but they must keep some tempest going or they lose the front pages.

You're going a great job, Ron, and Vera and I are so very, very proud of you and Miss Nancy.

I'm down from the mountains for a meeting of a Water Conservation District; and tonight hope to go over to ^{see} the Doctor and "Eddie". Then back to the mountains again.

Warmest regards,

Jack

Dear Mr. President,

My sincere congratulations to you for your excellent choice of Judge Sandra O'Connor to serve on the United States Supreme Court.

Although I do not know Judge O'Connor personally, I have heard and read many outstanding comments about her scholarly integrity, reputation for excellence, ability, hard work, and thorough and deliberative judicial skill.

I am particularly pleased that you have nominated a woman to serve on our nation's highest court after 191 years, and want to commend you for this selection.

Respectfully,
