Dear Mr. Franco:

I have no words to thank you or tell you how honored I am that you would send me one of the Purple Hearts you earned in the service of our country. First of all, I am now in a position to know something of the pain you suffered - not once, but three times in earning three Purple Hearts.

Please know that I'm deeply grateful for your most magnanimous gift and shall treasure it always. I shall try to be deserving of it.

Again, my heartfelt thanks and very best wishes.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Dear Mr. President, ^{sm. Bean}
jelly Beans

I'm very sorry that you were hurt. My family is very glad that you and the other men are getting better. It was a terrible thing that happened to you, but remember how many people in this country didn't shoot at you and how many people in this great country who prayed for your recovery. I hope you enjoy jelly beans. One jelly bean is missing, my son had to eat a black one.

If you ever come back to El Paso, I hope

we can see you.

Dear President Reagan,

Our prayers for your Speedy Recovery are being offered for you.

We want you to know
we are very proud of you and are proud to be Americans.

ANTHONY D. DALLA
This handsome bird is familiar to many for its whistles and contrast of dull orange yellow and black. Likes tall shade trees in towns and country roads. Found along streams and woodlands. Feeds largely on insects but eats some fruit. Breeds from Nova Scotia to Georgia and west to Colorado. Migrants from Mexico south to Columbia.

We know at this time
that a stay in the hospital is not the happiest time

But thought these jelly beans, would bring a little sweetness into your day.

Just to let you know I'm thinking of you
And wishing you
a Speedy Recovery

All our love + Best Wishes are sent your way.
You friend and fellow American
all the way
