Dear Juliaine:

GIFT → Thank you so much for the wonderful necklace. Please let all the other members at the Academy know how much I appreciate their thoughtfulness.

I am so sorry that we had to cancel your performance, but it was indeed a pleasure to meet you when you were at The White House. I know that you understand that out of respect to the Pope we just couldn't go ahead with the entertainment for the afternoon.

I was looking forward to seeing you in action and hope that you will be able to come back at another time.

Again, thank you for your gift and your understanding.

Sincerely,

NANCY REAGAN A

Dear Mrs. Pulvari:

Life →
Please accept my sincere apology for the delay in writing to thank you for the beautiful certificate of papal benediction you sent to me at my Pacific Palisades home. The good wishes and prayers of so many people have encouraged me greatly in these last few months, but I want you to know that the certificate is something I will always regard as special.

It is indeed an honor to be compared to Pope John Paul II, and I hope that my days in office reflect some small measure of your trust. Sorrowfully, our lives have now undergone a common tragedy, and I know you join me in prayers that the Pope will continue to swiftly recover.

Again, thank you for your kind words and prayers. My warmest regards to you and your family.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN A

Dear Mrs. Pulvari:

Please accept my sincere apologies for the delay in writing to thank you for the beautiful illuminated certificate you sent to me at my Pacific Palisades home. ~~Your special gift just came to my attention with other mail which arrived during the transition.~~

It is indeed an honor to be compared to Pope John Paul II, and I hope that my performance in office will be worthy of your trust. The certificate will hold a prominent <sup>place</sup> among my meaningful mementos and serve as a source of strength as I continue to lead our nation.

The assurance of your prayers and support is heartening, and I am happy to have this opportunity to send my kindest regards to you and your family.

Sincerely,

RR

I left a copy of this letter with the Holy Father's appoint-making secretary, so he already has it.

Hy

Dear Mr. President Elect,

Praying daily for our Holy Father and for you Mr.
President Elect I realized the striking analogy between the life and fate of the Pope's and yours.

You both came from a middle class family with some financial difficulties, so you both worked hard for your education.

Both started life as actors and the same time involved in dangerous politics, Karol Wojtyla fighting against Nazis and Communists, same time you broke the backbone of Communists in Hollywood,

Later Karol Wojtyla became Cardinal of Krakow and you became Governor of California.

Now Karol Wojtyla as Pope John Paul II. is the Spiritual Leader of the world and you as President of the United States are the Secular Leader of the same.

Providence must have good plans and I hope and pray that they will be fulfilled.

Again our best wishes and prayer with my family (three daughters, 6 grandchildren and seventh coming for Christmas)

Respectfully yours,

Josephine Pulvari
