MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING Orig. signed by FFF

SUBJECT: U.S. v. Hinckley Meeting

Purpose: This is the first of two contemplated briefing sessions in preparation for your giving of testimony in the criminal trial of John Hinckley, Jr.

Discussion: The following items will be discussed with you:

- The current procedural status of this matter.
- The nature of the case which will be presented by the government and by the defense, including anticipated testimony by the various witnesses.
- The manner in which your testimony fits into the case.
- The interview given by you to the FBI shortly after the incident.
- The general nature of your direct and anticipated cross-examination.

The purpose of the second briefing session, which will be conducted shortly before the giving of your testimony, will be to update each of the above matters and to refine your testimony.

Attendees: Fred F. Fielding

Stanley Harris - U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia (your appointee; former D.C. Judge who left the bench to accept this position)

Roger Adleman - Chief Government Prosecutor in this case

David Waller - Senior Associate Counsel (White House Staff)
