Dear Jean:

How I wish there were a way for me to lighten the burden you carry. I am so sorry about what happened, and I would give anything to have prevented Tom from being hurt.

Please know how grateful I am to your husband, who performed so bravely under the most frightening circumstances. Nancy and I pray for his complete recovery.

With my affection and heartfelt thanks,

Sincerely,

RON

Dear Sarah:

How brave you have been through everything. Nancy and I marvel at your courage and the strength you have given your Bear to fight so hard. Our prayers and love are with you both, as they have been all week, and we just can't wait 'til we all are back on active duty at the White House.

May God Bless you and Jim.

Sincerely,

RON

Dear Carol:

I am so sorry about what happened, and I wish there were a way for me to ease the pain and anguish you and your family are experiencing.

Please know how grateful I am to your brave husband, although I would give anything to have prevented Tim from being hurt. He threw himself into the path of the bullets to protect me. None could ask more. Nancy and I pray for his complete recovery.

With my affection and heartfelt thanks,

Sincerely,
