THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

REGRET

5/7/81

Date 6/7/81 GM

Greg:

Ann Stingle called from the American Red Cross National Headquarters at the suggestion of Dodie Livingston.

the Red Cross is presenting Certificates of Merit, its highest award, to two people who administered first aid the day of the assassination. They had both taken Red Cross course in this.

The V.P. will presenting the awards at their Centennial Convention and they would also like to have a Presidential message for the occasion.

Apparently Dodie did not feel she could make this decision and referred Ms Stingle to you.

I don't think this is necessary inasmuch as we've done quite a bit for Rex X.

P.S. As per Greg, also turned down request for a taped message from Pres. for opening of their Centennial Convention.
