Open Letter

Dear Sir:

Mr. President, let me start by saying "save us." With God's help you'll do that. You cannot have peace without a strong defense. I trust your judgment.

When the President says he's color blind, that's good enough for me. You are the first one and number one. America is lucky to have you, and you are luckier to have America.

God bless you and your family. The people know what you are about. I'm with you -- Unity -- God bless America!

Sincerely,

James Brown and Staff
