President Ronald Reagan
White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Reagan & Staff:

I have served you diligently as my President and someone I beleive and love. I went behind communist Countries and sung " Living In America" proudly. Yet and still I come home to South Carolina where I can not get my road paved or my Estaticed clean up , I had to pay for it out my own pocket.

I never got a government loan since I been in this Country, not disrespecting you whom I love very much me , my family and Staff but I think it is about time you exonerated me from all of my charges and Taxes which all the other President fail to do except Mr. Richard Nixon. Senator Thurmond is like a father of mines and I expect his help too also Vice President Bush and have high regards for Senator Sam Nunn even though he is a democate.

I am going to let the press know about it even the World Press. I let my lawyers know about it , I still have no response.

Thank you and may God Bless you.

Sincerely yours,

James Brown
