SCHEDULING
OFFICE

Dear Mr. President:

This month, WANE TV celebrates its 30th anniversary of service to Fort Wayne, Indiana, Northeast Indiana and Northwest Ohio. We are planning a gala 30th birthday party to which more than 500 community and business leaders have been invited, including Governor Robert Orr.

Highlights of the 30th anniversary celebration, along with historical vinettes from our 30 years of broadcasting will be telecast in a special prime-time program two nights later.

We would be delighted to receive a telephone greeting from you during the celebration. In anticipation of the possibility you might be able to call during the 30th birthday event, we have ordered the necessary telephone speaker-phone equipment to be installed. It would be appropriate for you to place the call at your convenience, between 7:30 PM and 9 PM, Washington time, on the evening of the 19th of September.

If you can find the time to call, we will provide you with a fact-sheet and work out the details with your staff.

By the way, with the good news that General Motors is building a new plant here, and recovery from the flood complete, it would be a good opportunity for you to congratulate WANE TV and the community. It would be even more significant, since you were here on the sandbag lines during the 1982 flood.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Larry L. Smith

The President
The White House
Washington, DC

Dear Mr. President:

A night honoring Bob Scheffing's 50 years in baseball will take place at the home of Mary Anne and Jack McKone on Saturday evening, October 20th.

Bob's career has included his playing days with the St. Louis Browns and the Chicago Cubs, his managerial duties with the Cubs and Tigers, as broadcaster for the Cubs and as General Manager for the New York Mets.

I doubt whether there is anyone more loved and respected in all of baseball than Bob Scheffing.

Mr. President, Bob had a nice personal visit with you in your office July 2nd prior to the Cracker Jack Old Timers Game. It was one of the great experiences of his life, and he hasn't stopped talking about it.

If you care to call Bob before you retire Saturday evening on October 20th, I'm sure he would be thrilled. The party starts at 6:30 p.m. Phoenix time, 9:30 p.m. Washington time. An hour into the party would be safe. The phone number at the McKone residence is 602/266-6009.

As you know, Arizona will give you a huge vote November 5th and we all wish you the best over the next four years.

Sincerely,

Lance Lewis

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 25, 1984

Dear Ms. Wicks:

Your October 8, 1984 letter to the President regarding John Hinckley, Jr. and his parents has been referred to me for response. You ask that the President call John Hinckley, Sr. and "try to arrange for John Jr. to be transferred to a hospital near Denver so that the Hinckleys can go home and try to pick up the pieces of their lives." You suggest that by doing so, the President can raise the awareness of the nature of the disease of schizophrenia.

The President has great sympathy for the pain and suffering that the Hinckley family has endured. During an interview conducted on April 23, 1981, the President stated that ". . . indeed I pray he [John Hinckley, Jr.] can find an answer to his problems. He seems to be a very disturbed young man. He comes from a fine family. They must be devastated by this, and I hope he'll get better."

The specific terms and duration of John Hinckley, Jr.'s confinement at St. Elizabeth's Hospital here in Washington, D.C., however, are determined by the Federal Court. It would be inappropriate for the President to attempt to intervene in such matters.

The President nonetheless shares your desire to elevate the public's awareness of mental illness. To that end, he proclaimed the week of April 15, 1983 as "National Mental Health Week," and the week of April 8, 1984 as "National Mental Health Counselors Week."

Thank you very much for your kind words in support of the President, and we wish you and the Alliance much success in your endeavors on behalf of the mentally ill.

Sincerely,

David B. Waller

President Ronald Reagan
White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President;

I am tempted to open my letter with "How would you like to pick up another ten or twenty million votes?", just to get your attention. Who are they? They are the victims and families of the victims of Schizophrenia. And they are strongly democrates because the democrates tell them that they alone will help us. But, my request is most important that just votes.

You can see by the letterhead that I am a member of the Alliance for the Menatly Ill of Michigan. We are a national organization with many chapters in every state and many affiliate organizations, who are family, friends and victims of Schizophrenia. There are 2.5 million victims -- usually stricken in their college years -- and they are almost never dangerous as was John Hinkley Jr. And, John Jr. only became dangerous after being so terrible misdiagnosed and not treated for his illness, by that Denver psychologist.

I am writing to tell you of the plight of John Hinkley Sr and his wife, whom as you probably know, have been living in Washington ever since that terrible day wthey you were almost killed at the hand of their son, John Jr. They have given up their home, their other children, their business, their friends -- their whole lives, to be near the St. Elizebath's Hospital and see John Jr. and to develop a national campaign to raise funds for medical research and to raise awareness of the warning signs of this disease. They have been going all around the country on speaking engagements to raise awareness. (They, of course, don't know that I'm writing to you. They don't feel that they deserve your understanding for forgiveness). He is really a very fine man and so is his wife.

RECEIVED OCT 13 1984

What I want to ask of you is that you call him and perhaps try to arrange for John Jr. to be transferred to a hospital near Denver so that the Hinkley's can go home and try to pick up the pieces of their lives. With your help, we can raise awareness of the nature of this disease, the warning signs, the treatments and you could help us persuade the government to provide research money to cure this disease.

You can get more information about Schizophrenia from Dr. Fuller Torrey who works at St. Elizabeth's and wrote the "bible" of Schizophrenia, "Surviving Schizophrenia".

Even if you don't find it in your heart to help Mr. Hinkley and all of us families and victims -- you are a great president and a great blessing to America and for this I sincerely thank you.

Thank you for listening,

Beverly Wicks

HEADLINE: Reagan wonders why he wasn't shot before

BYLINE: By HELEN THOMAS, UPI White House Reporter

DATELINE: WASHINGTON

KEYWORD: President

BODY:

President Reagan, in constant 'pain or discomfort' from his chest wound, says he wonders why the attempt on his life didn't happen '27 times before.'

Reagan said would-be assassins had many opportunities to gun him down since he took office three months ago, but he plans no additional security because of the March 30 shooting.

'I have a hunch I'll be more alert' in the future, Reagan said in an interview Wednesday with United Press International and The Associated Press -- his first since being hit by a .22-caliber slug 25 days ago.

The 70-year-old president, wearing a gray light wool suit, walked a bit stiffly. But he was in good spirits, had rosy cheeks and punctuated many of his comments with humor.

Generally, he said, 'I'm feeling fine.'

Late in the interview, he said:

'There is just that kind of pain or discomfort there constantly that you hope day by day is getting less, and that I think is getting less and less.

'But ... other than that, I've resumed at a little slower pace my regimen of exercise that I've always done for keeping fit and I don't think I'm going to hurdle any tables in the room here for awhile.'

Reagan said he isn't plagued with nightmares about the shooting, but has thought about it often, particularly in the context of his brief term in office.

'I look back now in some of these reviews that they've shown of the first few months (in office) and so forth,' he said. 'I see some of the milling in crowds and so forth that we've done and I find myself wondering, 'Well, why didn't this happen 27 times before.''

The interview was held in the White House map room. Reporters Helen Thomas of UPI and James Gerstenzang of the AP agreed to limit the questions to Reagan's health and his recollections of the shooting.

Proprietary to the United Press International , April 23, 1981

Reagan vividly recalled the attempted assassination. The shots. The pain. Initially not realizing he was hit. Then seeing his own blood.

Asked if he ever felt in mortal danger, Reagan said:

'No, as a matter of fact it still seems kind of unreal. I knew there had to be shots and my first instinct was to take a look behind and see what was going on and the Secret Service man behind me had a different idea, and the next thing I knew I found myself pushed into the car.

'I knew I had been hit but I thought it was from the Secret Service man landing on me in the car. I must say it was the most paralyzing pain. I've described it as if someone hit you with a hammer.

'But that sensation came after I was in the car ... and I thought the pain wouldn't go away. Suddenly I found I was coughing up blood. We both decided that maybe I had broken a rib, and had punctured a lung so we had to go to the hospital.'

Reagan said his main concern on the way to the hospital was that he felt he was 'getting less air and you know that panic you get when you're strangling.'

But he said he remained alert, and with his typical humor added, 'I knew the manner in which I was unclothed (his attire was cut off by emergency room personnel) that I probably wouldn't wear that suit again.'

Since the shooting, there has been renewed interest in gun control. Reagan, however, said he remains against it.

Reagan said he believes there are adequate gun laws and that no additional measures could have prevented the shooting.

The president was asked if he had any feelings about John W. Hinckley Jr., the accused gunman.

'Yes, the feeling is I hope, indeed I pray, he can find an answer to his problems. He seems to be a very disturbed young man. He comes from a fine family. They must be devastated by this. And I hope he'll get better.'

As for his work as a recovering president temporarily confined to the White House, Reagan said:

'It's convenient this way (working mostly in the White House family quarters) because there still are calls by the doctors -- they come and check.' He said he also can make telephone calls in his robe, take naps and hold meetings at a leisurely pace.

Reagan also said he:

--Has held regular staff meetings, lobbied members of Congress by telephone on his economic package and thinks 'it's going very well.'

--Is taking an afternoon nap, 'and that was never, in spite of some stories to the contrary, that was never a habit of mine.'

Week, 1984

Proclamation 5174. April 8, 1984

*By the President of the United States
of America*

A Proclamation

Mental health counselors use special counseling skills and understanding of human development to help their fellow Americans cope with problems of adjustment, the pain of illness, and the stresses of life. They provide 50 percent of the mental health services delivered in this country, working with the chronically mentally ill, the depressed, the anxious, the abused, and others, who, through no fault of their own, cannot fully meet their daily obligations or experience life's pleasures.

Through a variety of techniques, mental health counselors assist people to attain self-understanding and skills needed to solve problems, make decisions, and successfully deal with others in an increasingly complex world. Mental health counselors work in hospitals, community agencies, clinics, and the private practice sector and with all types of health professionals, applying the expertise gained through their many years of education and training.

In recognition of the important services that these counselors perform for others to save lives and reduce suffering, the Congress, by Senate Joint Resolution 203, has designated the week beginning April 8, 1984, as National Mental Health Counselors Week and has authorized and requested the President to issue a proclamation in observance of this event.

Now, Therefore, I, Ronald Reagan, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the week beginning April 8, 1984, as National Mental Health Counselors Week. I call upon health care professionals, educators, the media, individuals, and public and private organizations concerned with mental health to observe this week with appropriate ceremonies.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 8th day of April, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and eighth.

National Mental Health Week, 1983

Proclamation 5051. April 15, 1983

*By the President of the United States
of America*

A Proclamation

Mental illness costs this Nation more than $50 billion a year and contributes to declining productivity and rising health costs. Approximately 35 million people a year suffer from a diagnosable mental disorder. In addition, millions more seek professional assistance to alleviate the physical and emotional problems created by excessive stress.

These facts and figures, however, cannot describe the high cost in human suffering from mental illness. Incapacitation—most often temporary but permanent for some—may result from severe depression, crippling anxieties, or other manifestations of mental disorders. Yet public fear and misunderstanding of their illnesses place additional burdens on the afflicted and their families.

It is important that the public understand that major advancements brought about by science have made mental illnesses and stress-related disorders greatly amenable to treatment. New technologies have added significantly to the numbers of patients who have improved or recovered following treatment and promise further advances.

In recognition of the importance for our Nation of the treatment, care and support for the mentally ill provided by health professionals, volunteers, and family members, the Congress, by Senate Joint Resolution 52, has authorized and requested the President to issue a proclamation designating the week of April 10 through April 16, 1983, as National Mental Health Week.

Now, Therefore, I, Ronald Reagan, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the week beginning on April 10, 1983, as National Mental Health Week. I call upon health professionals, educators, communications media, the business community, individuals, and public and private organizations concerned with the welfare of their fellow citizens to seek and encourage better understanding of mental disorders and to honor those whose studies, treatment, and support have brought palpable gains and welcome hope to the mentally ill.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this fifteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and seventh.

Ronald Reagan

Dear Mr. President;

I am tempted to open my letter with "How would you like to pick up another ten or twenty million votes?", just to get your attention. Who are they? They are the victims and families of the victims of Schizophrenia. And they are strongly democrates because the democrates tell them that they alone will help us. But, my request is most important that just votes.

You can see by the letterhead that I am a member of the Alliance for the Menatllly Ill of Michigan. We are a national organization with many chapters in every state and many affiliate organizations, who are family, friends and victims of Schizophrenia. There are 2.5 million victims -- usually stricken in their college years -- and they are almost never dangerous as was John Hinkley Jr. And, John Jr. only became dangerous after being so terrible misdiagnosed and not treated for his illness, by that Denver psychologist.

I am writing to tell you of the plight of John Hinkley Sr and his wife, whom as you probably know, have been living in Washington ever since that terrible day wthey you were almost killed at the hand of their son, John Jr. They have given up their home, their other children, their business, their friends -- their whole lives, to be near the St. Elizebath's Hospital and see John Jr. and to develop a national campaign to raise funds for medical research and to raise awareness of the warning signs of this disease. They have been going all around the country on speaking engagements to raise awareness. (They, of course, don't know that I'm writing to you. They don't feel that they deserve your understanding for forgiveness). He is really a very fine man and so is his wife.

What I want to ask of you is that you call him and perhaps try to arrange for John Jr. to be transferred to a hospital near Denver so that the Hinkley's can go home and try to pick up the pieces of their lives. With your help, we can raise awareness of the nature of this disease, the warning signs, the treatments and you could help us persuade the government to provide research money to cure this disease.

You can get more information about Schizophrenia from Dr. Fuller Torrey who works at St. Elizabeth's and wrote the "bible" of Schizophrenia, "Surviving Schizophrenia".

Even if you don't find it in your heart to help Mr. Hinkley and all of us families and victims -- you are a great president and a great blessing to America and for this I sincerely thank you.

Thank you for listening,

Dear B.:

Please accept this letter as my request on behalf of the several thousand Northwest Floridians who will be attending the Bob Hope Benefit Show for the Air Force Enlisted Men's Widows' Foundation, for President Reagan to either call or send an audio tape for the occasion.

The event will take place on October 25, 1984 at the Choctawhatchee Senior High School Stadium where a croud of more than ten thousand are expected to hear Bob Hope, Roy Clark, Shirley Jones, the USAF Airmen of Note Band, and hopefully, President Reagan.

Technical arrangements can be discussed with Dick Petermann of Petermann Advertising by calling (904) 243-5315. Or, if you need further assistance from my office, please contact my Administrative Assistant, Randy Knepper, at (202) 225-4136.

In an effort to be helpful, I am enclosing a copy of the information I received from Dick Petermann relating to this event. I trust this will be given a priority in that it would be expedient this time of year.

With warm regards.

Re: President Reagan/Bob Hope Show

On October 25, 1984, the Bob Hope Benefit Show will be given, with proceeds going to the Air Force Enlisted Men's Widows' Foundation. That same day, preceeding the show, the Bob Hope Village will be dedicated.

The performers include: Bob Hope
Roy Clark
Shirley Jones
USAF Airmen of Note Band

It is our hope and request that President Reagan will send us a recorded message that can be played as the finale of the show. The audio tape can be sent in any format, i.e., cassette, real-to-reel at 7½ ips or 15 ips. The running time can be any length, not to exceed 90 seconds.

It has been suggested that the comments be congratulatory and warm in tone. Such as:

"Bob...I'm proud of what you're doing tonight. Nancy and I would have liked being with you, but, as you know, we're pretty busy right now. The Air Force Enlisted Men's Widows' Foundation is indeed a good cause. These ladies' support of their husbands' military careers is indicative of the unity of the American people in their pursuit of peace. Sure wish we could have been there to enjoy hearing you, Roy Clark, Shirley Jones and the exciting Airmen of Note. I know you're proud of the Bob Hope Village. Maybe we can get together soon. Thanks again to you and everybody in Fort Walton Beach."

The audio tape would be introduced thusly: Ladies & Gentlemen, a message from the President of the United States...

Thanks again...oh, yes, the tape should be sent to this address. I'll see that it is taken care of.

Dear Dave:

Thank you for your October 15 letter enclosing correspondence from Mr. Carl Seymour, who has requested that President Reagan place a telephone call to the Grand Matron and Grand Patron of the Order of the Eastern Star at a testimonial dinner in New York, October 22.

Your interest is appreciated and please know that I have directed your correspondence to the attention of the appropriate White House officials where I am sure it will receive careful consideration. Dear "B":

Enclosed please find a copy of a letter addressed to the President under date of October 11th from a constituent, Mr. Carl Seymour of Potsdam, inquiring as to the possibility of a telephone call from the President to Leah Theobald and Lawrence Unger, Grand Matron and Grant Patron, respectively, of the Order of the Eastern Star, State of New York, during that organization's testimonial dinner honoring the above mentioned members to be held in Niagara Falls on Monday, October 22nd.

While I realize a telephone call from the President might be impractical, I would appreciate anything that can be done to have an appropriate message delivered to the Eastern Star convention in Niagara Falls. ←

Your attention to this request will be sincerely appreciated.

Dear Mr. President:

On Monday, October 22, 1984 at 7:30 p.m. at the Convention Center in Niagara Falls, N.Y., a testimonial dinner will be held in honor of the Grand Matron, Leah P. Theobald and the Grand Patron, Lawrence Unger, Order of the Eastern Star, State of New York. This dinner will have over a thousand people in attendance. The Eastern Star organization is a sister lodge to the Free and Accepted Masons.

These two very fine people have led the Eastern Star members in New York State for 1984 and have completed a spectacular year. Under their leadership over ninety thousand dollars was raised on one day alone in July. The proceeds will be used for Veterans assistance, Educational assistance for college bound students, Nursing home care, and for family emergency assistance.

The theme these two people have used all year in over forty official meetings plus other social meetings held throughout New York State is; "Live Peacefully Together In Love and Understanding". This theme seems to go along with your speeches which you have made to us.

If you would be able to make a congratulatory telephone call sometime during the dinner to this couple I am sure it would be a most thrilling surprise and the climax of the year to all in attendance, and it would certainly express your concern and appreciation to many of your supporters (of which there will be many there). I would like to keep this as a surprise to all who will be in attendance at the dinner.

If one of your Aides will get in contact with me we can coordinate the time and telephone number. I want to arrange for an open line into the microphone so all in attendance will be able to hear.

For a further check, if needed, a contact with Congressman David O.B. Martin will affirm this meeting being held.

Please may we hear from you?

Very truly yours,

Carl Seymour Grand Marshal

Dear "B":

Enclosed please find a copy of a letter addressed to the President under date of October 11th from a constituent, Mr. Carl Seymour of Potsdam, inquiring as to the possibility of a telephone call from the President to Leah Theobald and Lawrence Unger, Grand Matron and Grant Patron, respectively, of the Order of the Eastern Star, State of New York, during that organization's testimonial dinner honoring the above mentioned members to be held in Niagara Falls on Monday, October 22nd.

While I realize a telephone call from the President might be impractical, I would appreciate anything that can be done to have an appropriate message delivered to the Eastern Star convention in Niagara Falls. ←

Dear Mr. President:

On Monday, October 22, 1984 at 7:30 p.m. at the Convention Center in Niagara Falls, N.Y., a testimonial dinner will be held in honor of the Grand Matron, Leah P. Theobald and the Grand Patron, Lawrence Unger, Order of the Eastern Star, State of New York. This dinner will have over a thousand people in attendance. The Eastern Star organization is a sister lodge to the Free and Accepted Masons.

These two very fine people have led the Eastern Star members in New York State for 1984 and have completed a spectacular year. Under their leadership over ninety thousand dollars was raised on one day alone in July. The proceeds will be used for Veterans assistance, Educational assistance for college bound students, Nursing home care, and for family emergency assistance.

The theme these two people have used all year in over forty official meetings plus other social meetings held throughout New York State is; "Live Peacefully Together In Love and Understanding". This theme seems to go along with your speeches which you have made to us.

If you would be able to make a congratulatory telephone call sometime during the dinner to this couple I am sure it would be a most thrilling surprise and the climax of the year to all in attendance, and it would certainly express your concern and appreciation to many of your supporters (of which there will be many there). I would like to keep this as a surprise to all who will be in attendance at the dinner.

If one of your Aides will get in contact with me we can coordinate the time and telephone number. I want to arrange for an open line into the microphone so all in attendance will be able to hear.

For a further check, if needed, a contact with Congressman David O.B. Martin will affirm this meeting being held.

Please may we hear from you?

Very truly yours,

Carl Seymour, Grand Marshal

Dear Mr. President,

Thank you so much for calling my wife, Michelle, at the hospital after she had delivered our first child. She was still a bit groggy after her surgery when you were talking to her, but I know she will always remember the call!

As a matter of fact, you talked to her before I did! I was rushing home from Greenville, SC where I was doing the advance for your trip there the following week. The early arrival of my son pulled me off that assignment.

Mother and baby, by the way, are doing fine; both are at home and adjusting nicely. David Courtenay was 5 1/2 pounds and 18 1/2 inches, and he came out wearing a Reagan-Bush button (that's got to tell you he'll be a good Republican).

With me being on your advance team and my wife being one of your political appointees in the Chicago region (we met during your 1976 campaign, incidentally), you can understand how much we support you. Your thoughtfulness in taking time out of your busy schedule to call was so generous, though, that we are prouder than we have ever been that you are our President.

Sincerely,

David Harris

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED RYAN

FROM: CATHI VILLALPANDO

RE: U. S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce

In further regards to the U. S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce's request for a Presidential telephone call:

- o Point of contact for the convention center is Mr. Mario Prado at (512) 299-0090.
- o Upon confirmation of the telephone call a dedicated line will be installed for the event.
- o Walter Mondale has been confirmed to attend the Convention at an event to be determined

Your continued assistance in this matter is appreciated.

TALKING POINTS

- .. Good evening ... My good friends Hector Barreto and Bill Coors; and Richard Barrera the Chairman of this Fifth Annual Convention of the U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. Greetings to all my Hispanic friends gathered in San Antonio Texas tonight.

- .. I take this opportunity to offer my congratulations to the board of directors, the chamber affiliates, and especially to Hector Barreto for the fine job he has done with this organization during the past five years. You are developing a unity of purpose for the Hispanic business community through hard work, dedication and pride.

- .. I have always said that small business makes this country great, and the Hispanic Chamber continues to play an important role in the growth of our economy. And right now that economy is surging, with lower interest rates, lower inflation, and most important, more Americans working today than ever before.

- ... The key word in all our efforts is opportunity, and that is what our country is all about. The America that you as businessowners are helping to build, is a nation that will lead the way into a new age of technology and freedom - where people's opportunity is limited only by their imagination and their willingness to work.

... All of you are to be congratulated working together to make sure the Hispanic business community continues to be part of this country's free enterprise system.

... I also congratulate this year's recipient of the Businessman of the Year Award, Juan Gutierrez. After working as a migrant harvesting vegetables and picking cotton, he now owns a multi-disciplinary, multi-million dollar consulting firm based in Washington, D.C., with current earnings of $9.7 million.

... Congratulations also to this year's Businesswoman of the Year, Mirta de Perales. She began cutting hair at the age of 11 in Cuba. After coming to the U.S., she opened a business in Coral Gables selling over 30 different cosmetic products. Her sales today are over $3.5 million.

.. I know that the Hispanic Chamber is primarily interested in the business world, but I am also aware of your great concern in the education of our young Hispanic Americans. As many of you know, just last week Hector Barreto joined me in the Rose Garden to pay tribute to outstanding Hispanic young men and women for demonstrated superior academic skills, outstanding leadership, and exemplary service to your community. I sincerely commend the Chamber for the new scholarship program aimed at deserving Hispanic college students.

I have enjoyed bringing greetings to "you all" - as they say in Texas - from Air Force One.

Muy buenas noches y que Dios los bendiga.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

.. Hispanic businessmen and women have increased in numbers dramatically in the past few years. In 1977 there were 219,000 Hispanic businesses with gross receipts of 10.4 billion dollars, and in 1984 the number increased to 363,000 businesses with gross receipts of over 18 billion dollars.

Dear President Reagan:

On behalf of all the U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce convention delegates, I wish to sincerely thank you for your telephone call on Thursday evening, September 20 during our Hispanic Business Recognition Banquet. Our delegates were very disappointed that you were not present, but I feel we were able to address their concerns. It is important that Hispanics be made aware of your support that Hispanics equally participate in the American system.

Your recognition of the contributions Hispanic business persons have made to the growth of the free enterprise system and your comments on award winners Mirta de Perales and Juan Gutierrez both had tremendous impact on our audience.

We are pleased that Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger and Housing and Urban Development Secretary Samuel Pierce were able to each give major addresses at our convention. It was an honor to have these two high ranking officials representing your policies and administration at our event.

It was also a distinct pleasure to have a number of other high-ranking appointees from your administration address our delegates. Frank Casillas, Assistant Secretary Department of Labor delivered an inspiring speech and was received well by our delegates. They were pleased that there has been a commitment by your Administration to Hispanic participation in high level positions; we look forward to further progress in even more appointments.

Our conferees were enthusiastic about the comments from James Sanders, National Administrator, Small Business Administration; Antonio Monroig, Housing and Urban Development; Katherine Ortega, U.S. Treasurer; James Richardson Gonzalez, National Director, Minority Business Development Agency; and Victor Rivera, Assistant Administrator, AID Latin American Affairs.

All of these individuals made significant contributions to the outstanding success of the convention.

Again, we were sorry you were unable to attend personally but were very pleased that you were able to deliver an inspiring telephone call. Thanks to you and your appointees for helping to make a memorable convention.

Sincerely,

Hector Barreto
President
