Dear Mr. Fladung:

Thank you very much for your message of support. This is a time of great opportunity for Republicans. Last fall, we promised that we would work to reclaim America's destiny. We advocated policies that would assist the recovery of our economy and reaffirm the values of our forefathers. We promised to return the capacity for initiative and responsibility to local levels of government and to restrict the regulatory and tax burdens imposed from Washington. The American people gave us their support.

We are now working to deliver on the promises that we made. Our success will require the dedication and cooperation of all Americans, but we are confident of their patriotic response. Your help so far is an indication of the public-spirited concern that will assure our success.

You have my deep thanks for your assistance in the past. We hope for your help and your prayers in the future, and we are confident that we can count on you as we begin this era of national renewal.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN A

RESOLUTION*

Approved by the Executive Committee, Jerry Fladung, Chairman
March 23, 1981

WHEREAS

for too many years the federal government has spent beyond its means, piling deficit upon deficit, until now the public debt is approaching ONE TRILLION DOLLARS;

AND WHEREAS

this same reckless spending has fueled both a skyrocketing inflation that robs the working person's paycheck of its worth and ever higher interest rates that make the dream of owning a home an impossibility;

AND WHEREAS

our great nation is now on the verge of an economic calamity of immense proportions, one that threatens the very fabric of American society;

AND WHEREAS

our new President Ronald Reagan has proposed a massive and far reaching program to get this nation back on the right road with his historic "Program for Economic Recovery", a program which will cut federal spending while maintaining the social safety net for the truly needy;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Johnson County Republican Central Committee does hereby wholeheartedly endorse the aims, goals, and objectives of the President's economic recovery plan as America's best hope for regaining its economic health;

AND FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED

that this same organization does hereby call on the Administration for guidance as to how its members can best support and work for the President's economic plan.

It won't be easy getting this program, but letters like yours make us more determined than ever that we are going to go through with the program. I just want to thank you for your encouragement.

Dear Mr. President,

Enclosed are some letters that I have collected at my place of employment. We hope to show you that we are in full support of your economic plan. We are especially pleased to see that maybe now our tax dollars will not be going to lazy people who are able to go out and get a job but are staying home because our welfare system makes it so nice for them to do so. We hope to see some good results and a stronger economy.

Thank you from myself and the others whose names are also in this packet.

March 12, 1981

Dear President Reagan,

I happen to be one of many who feels very strongly against welfare assistance going to capable and able bodied people. Unfortunately many of these people are not screened to the degree that they should be, because I'm sure if they were, the number of recipients that are now on public aid or profit from their services would drastically drop in size.

My heart does go out to the needy families and the elderly. Thank God we do offer the help we do to these families. But I don't understand why my tax dollars must go to such individuals that do have employable skills, but they are of a simple class of people, or they may not speak the language and are basically too lazy to put their skills to work. So these same individuals lie and cheat to the various welfare offices so they may receive funds that hard working families pay for in the long run.

I do believe whole heartedly that there are jobs out there for almost anyone, if, they have a willing attitude to take a job on. But the willing attitude will not come if the money is being given to them to pay for the things that the average American would go to work for.

I, as an example, am divorced for three years and I went to work full time, three years ago, with two small children. I didn't have a college degree to fall back on, or a husband. But my attitude is, if I'm going to give my children a place to live, and food on the table, I will work, and if one employer won't have me, someone else will.

Who wouldn't like a check to be sent to them for doing nothing. All I am asking is, that welfare restrictions are made tighter for these people, and that we screen them so very carefully, so others are not cheated by their unwillingness to work.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Lena Sciascia

I wish to lend my voice in support of the proposal to ensure only the "truly needy" receive welfare assistance. I believe the work fare plan to be a sound one based on many of the founding principles of this country. We strongly urge all legislatures to support such a program in the future.

Dear Mr. President:

I have several issues I would like you to hear my feelings on. Two are concerning policy statements you have already made, and the third concerns what I consider to be misuse of unemployment benefits by many people.

First, your statement concerning use of foreign languages in our public institutions. I agree with you totally that requiring schools and other institutions of government to have multiple language capability is a hardship on the institutions and does tend to encourage foreign nationals living here to stay with their native language instead of learning to speak, read and write English.

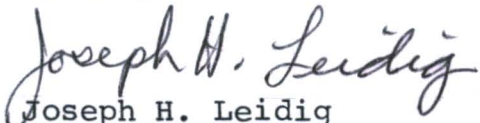

Second, I agree that this country has provided benefits to the unemployed that encourages them to remain unemployed. Unfortunately, we also provide "incentive" pay for thousands of women who are unmarried to have child after child and let the general public pay the bill for their promiscuity. Something should be done to curb this.

Third, while I have heard of no specific policy comments concerning payment of unemployment benefits to people who earn excellent annual wages, but only work part of the year, I have seen this happen time after time. I am speaking about people like construction workers, truck drivers, etc., who earn thousands of dollars more than median income on an annual basis, but take the winter months off and allow the government to pay for their 3 month vacation.

President of the Unites States

The original purpose of unemployment benefits was not to reward people for not working, but to help those who were really in need due to being out of work. The need still must be recognized and the needy assisted, but regulations should not permit those who have no need to enjoy millions of dollars of benefits at public expense.

Thank you,

Dear President Reagan:

My husband and I are 26 and 29, and have worked hard and steady since we were both 16.

We love our country but don't always understand it - as I'm sure many Americans don't. We don't make a lot of money and ~~had~~ have both gotten where we are today by working from the bottom up. We've always paid our bills, taxes, etc. on time - - but even though we don't understand ~~a~~ certain things...

Our ancestors came to America and made it their home - and ours. They made it without things like welfare and they learned to speak english unlike so many today.

It ~~too~~ tears us apart that we work and yet others who are able to work, don't and live off our welfare, teaching and speaking their languages (mostly spanish) in our schools.

It's so refreshing to finally have a president who is a real person and not a political robot who just does things to be re-elected. A person that sees out of his eyes the same thing others see and can ~~see~~ differentiate between good and bad; right and wrong.

Best of luck to you
President Reagan, we wholeheartedly believe in your welfare, bi-lingual schools cuts and know you'll get America back on her feet again.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. President,

This is just a letter to let you know that I stand behind you in your plan to better our economy. I am especially pleased to know that you want to weed out the people on welfare. It is about time that someone started a move in that direction.

I am a twenty eight year old married woman. I have a nineteen month old child and am expecting my second child. We have recently moved back to the Chicago land area from my husband's home in California. I was born and raised in Chicago and I was very homesick so we moved back. My husband is working for the same company (Ace Hardware, but had to take a cut in pay because of the drastically different pay scale here. We found ourselves with half the income we had and much less insurance. Needless to say, we were forced into a situation of either starving or I had to go out and find a job. After 2 months of daily searching I did find a job, not the greatest salary, but a job just the same.

My point is; If I, with a small child and pregnant can get work everyday then so can a lot of other people who are now sitting on their fat posterior collecting welfare which I am paying taxes for My anger was sparked by a newscast in this area showing a black woman and a spanish woman complaining to the news media that their 8 year old babies needed them at home! I have never been so thoroughly disgusted in my life!

Please Mr. President, there are so many of us behind you and counting on you to carry out your plan, hold your guns and carry on! Our taxes are high enough that they shouldn't be thrown away on, what a virtually freebades!

I personally wish to congratulate you on your plan to alter the welfare program. I feel it is high time that "poor people" in this country work for their bread.

Dear President Reagan:

I am in favor of Secretary Schweiker's cuts for the welfare budget. As a working mother I realize that I could be penalizing my own juniors in high school should something happen to my husband or me, but if the girls really want an education they will get one. I object to the over 18 year olds taking social security checks for indulging in beginning art and music lessons rather than serious study, whether academic or vocational.

The time has come for the welfare recipients to learn how much gradification can come from earning money. We have raised too many generations of people who think the world owes them a living - thanks to F.D.R.

Dear President Reagan:

This is to advise that I support 100% your programs to cut the outrageous national budget and eliminate the majority of the unnecessary give-away welfare programs. Our great country has been brought to the brink of ruin by the billions of dollars wasted on unnecessary programs voted by unthinking prior administrations in their efforts to stay in office. Only the people who can't work due to health or age should be taken care of by government programs. All others should be willing to work for their benefits.

You and your administration are the last hope of this country. You must save us from bankruptcy and ruin. Turn a deaf ear to the minority pressure groups and radicals who are bent on wrecking your programs.

The great majority elected you and the great majority support you to the hilt. May God be with you during the difficult months and years ahead.

DEAR PRESIDENT REAGAN,

ENCLOSED IS A COPY OF AN ARTICLE TAKEN FROM THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE. THIS ARTICLE IS VERY IMPORTANT TO ME AND TO A LOT OF OTHER PEOPLE WHO ARE TRYING TO MAKE A DECENT LIVING FOR OURSELVES AND OUR CHILDREN.

I AM A SINGLE PARENT, RAISING TWO CHILDREN, A BOY 16 YEARS OLD AND A GIRL 8 YEARS OLD. MY DAUGHTER HAS BEEN SERIOUSLY ILL SINCE HER BIRTH AND I WORK FOURTY HOURS A WEEK TO SUPPORT THEM AND MYSELF, AND I DO IT ALL ON MY OWN. AND I AM IN FULL SUPPORT WITH YOUR IDEAS CONCERNING WELFARE.

I WENT AND APPLIED FOR WELFARE AT ONE TIME FOR TEMPORARY HELP, AS TIMES WERE HARD UPON US AT THAT TIME. I MADE $27.00 A MONTH MORE THAN THE BASIC REQUIREMENTS AND THEREFORE WAS GIVEN $33.00 A MONTH IN FOOD STAMPS FOR A PERIOD OF SIX MONTHS. IN A WAY I'M GLAD THAT THINGS WORKED OUT THIS WAY. FOR ALTHOUGH WE HAD TO TIGHTEN UP OUR BELTS, WE MADE IT. AND WE WILL CONTINUE TO DO SO. FOR WITHOUT HELP OR AID FROM OTHERS, ONE HAS TO RELY UPON ONESELF AND HAVE THE DETERMINATION TO GO ON. SO MY CHILDREN AND MYSELF PICKED OURSELVES UP, STARTED OVER AND IN THE LONG RUN IT WILL MAKE US BETTER PERSONS, AS HARD AS IT SEEMS RIGHT NOW. BUT WE WON'T QUIT.

I BELIEVE THAT THOSE PEOPLE WHO ARE ABLE TO WORK SHOULD DO SO. I AM SUPPORTING MY FAMILY THE BEST WAY I CAN. BUT, I CANNOT AFFORD TO SUPPORT PEOPLE WHO REFUSE TO WORK OR ARE TOO LAZY EVEN TO TRY. THERE ARE JOBS AROUND FOR ALL KINDS OF PEOPLE, IN ALL WALKS OF LIFE. ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS TRY.

MY 16 YEAR OLD SON IS A DISHWASHER, BUT HE IS LOOKING FOR A BETTER JOB. IF A CHILD IF 16 CAN DO IT, THEN WHY CAN'T THE ADULTS OF THESE UNITED STATES DO THE SAME? WELFARE MAKES LIFE TO EASY FOR THOSE WHO ARE TOO LAZY TO WORK. EACH CASE SHOULD BE REVIEWED MORE SERIOUSLY AND THOSE WHO ARE ABLE TO WORK SHOULD BE MADE TO WORK. THEIR AID SHOULD BE CUT OFF, BECAUSE WITHOUT WELFARE OR OTHER PUBLIC AID AGENCIES THESE PEOPLE WILL HAVE TO STAND UP AND MAKE SOMETHING OUT OF THEIR LIVES AND THEIR CHILDRENS AS WELL.

SINCERELY,

Budget cuts aren't deep enough, two critics say

From Tribune Wire Services

WASHINGTON—President Reagan's proposed budget cuts drew heavy fire Wednesday on Capitol Hill, but some people suggested that he missed one big chance for spending reductions—the annual increases in Social Security benefits.

Saying the President didn't go far enough, Sen. Peter Domenici (R., N.M.) and Dr. Alice Rivlin, head of the Congressional Budget Office, both suggested changing the retirement program.

Domenici said he doubted Reagan "could afford to be critical" if Congress modified the annual cost-of-living increases in Social Security benefits.

The President hasn't touched basic Social Security retirement benefits, keeping them as part of a "safety net" for the needy. Any change in such benefits would be political dynamite, since it would affect at least 10 million people.

RIVLIN TOLD senators that Congress actually should approve cuts that are larger than the $48.6 billion Reagan is recommending so spending can be kept under control if the President's "optimistic" forecasts about the economy are wrong.

The consequences of his being wrong "are troubling," Rivlin said. "Higher inflation, higher interest rates, and higher unemployment would all work to produce more federal spending and larger budget deficits," she said.

A "major omission" in the administration's proposal is leaving untouched the adjustments for inflation in Social Security and other federal retirement plans, she said.

Social Security and other benefits are adjusted annually according to the rise in the Consumer Price Index (CPI), a principal government measure of inflation.

But Rivlin said that since prices have been rising faster than wages in recent years, recipients of the benefits "have been more fully protected against the ravages of inflation than have wage-earners."

Among changes she recommended:

- Using a new index that gives less weight to increases in housing costs.
- Limiting the cost-of-living adjustment to less than 100 per cent of the increase in the index, "possibly 85 per cent."
- Making the increases less automatic by requiring the President to recommend an increase each year, subject to congressional approval.

Domenici said he hadn't talked with Budget Director David Stockman about changing Social Security, but told reporters he sensed a "genuine interest in some way of affecting the rapid growth of" programs such as Social Security, "and one way to do that would be to change the CPI."

● Amtrak president rails against Reagan budget cuts that would confine operations of the railroad to the corridor between Washington and Boston. Page 8.

● Other cuts would drain the National Aquarium and leave 1,000 sea creatures high and dry. Page 8.

However, many congressional Democrats Tuesday complained that Reagan's budget cuts already have gone too far and suggested that his projections are economic pie in the sky.

ONE DAY AFTER the President submitted more details of his economic program, a half-dozen Cabinet secretaries and high-ranking budget officials drew heavy fire during hearings on Capitol Hill.

The administration says its package will help lower inflation to 11 per cent this year, slightly more than 8 per cent in 1982, and 6 per cent in 1983. Some Democrats said the forecasts are too rosy.

"We are not going to put out a budget based on mirrors and magic," said Rep. James Jones (D., Okla.), chairman of the House Budget Committee. "We are not going to put out a budget based on assumptions which six months or a year from now will be held up to ridicule."

Murray Weidenbaum, chairman of the President's Council on Economic Advisers, responded that the budget "is as honest and accurate" as possible.

MEANWHILE, RICHARD Schweiker, secretary of health and human services, pushed for tighter welfare restrictions that he said would prevent families from being better off on welfare than if they worked.

"The American people strongly oppose assistance going to those who can work, who have other sources of income, and who get as much—or more—on welfare as others get from working," he said.

He said the "truly needy" would not be hurt by the proposed regulations, but one member of the House Ways and Means Committee called the plan one that would "take from the poor . . . and give to the very rich."

Schweiker proposes to end aid to strikers and to 18-year-olds unless they are completing their senior year of high school. He also wants to require that employable welfare recipients enroll in state "work experience" programs if they cannot find regular jobs.

Welfare parents who attend college would be required to register for work, Schweiker said, "because it is unfair to allow able-bodied adults to avoid work . . . while the taxpayers supporting them may be unable to attend college."

I Support Richard Schweiker regarding Welfare Recipients.

JUN 12 1981

Reverend James E. Andrews
The World Alliance of Reformed Churches
341 Ponce de Leon Avenue, NE.
Atlanta, Georgia 30365

9 JUN 1981

Dear Reverend Andrews:

Thank you for your letter to President Reagan forwarding the World Alliance of Churches "Covenant Declaration for a Nuclear Age" and expressing concern about nuclear weapons.

The President understands your concern. He shares your hope for the reduction, even ultimate elimination, of nuclear weapons by all nations of the world. Until this becomes a reality, however, he knows we must maintain military strength to deter the Soviet Union--or any would-be aggressor--from attacking the United States or its allies. On this matter, he said:

As for the enemies of freedom, those who are potential adversaries, they will be reminded that peace is the highest aspiration of the American people. We will negotiate for it, sacrifice for it; we will never surrender for it now or ever.

It is the President's intention to enter discussions with the Soviet Union that will lead to nuclear arms reductions. In the meantime, we must make certain that our national security is preserved. This is why he told the American people that "we will maintain sufficient strength to prevail if need be, knowing that if we do so we have the best chance of never having to use that strength."

Sincerely,

Mr. President:

The World Alliance of Reformed Churches, oldest of the world organizations composed of Churches sharing a common theological heritage, has for more than a century expressed a strong concern for the quality of human life and the rights of persons. The Caribbean and North American Area Council of the Alliance, whose seventeen members Churches serve more than 6,500,000 members in the Caribbean and North American nations, expresses that concern through conferences, publications, and public statements.

At its annual meeting February 19-21, 1981, held at Toronto, Canada, the Area Council instructed me to forward to the heads of government of the nations from which the Council's delegates are elected the attached "Covenant Declaration for a Nuclear Age." It is our hope that the declaration may be shared with the appropriate officials of your government as they consider and recommend upon matters concerning nuclear weapons and nuclear power.

Sincerely,

James E. Andrews, Secretary

A COVENANT DECLARATION FOR A NUCLEAR AGE

OUR HISTORICAL MOMENT

FEARFULLY aware of the threat to life in all its dimensions symbolized by the proliferation of nuclear weapons, ANXIOUSLY aware of the threat to nature and human life posed by the possibility of nuclear accidents, especially in the wake of the Three Mile Island event, and PAINFULLY aware of the threat of nuclear confrontation as many of our governments increase defense and national security spending,
WE ARE COMPELLED both to confess our implication in these destructive developments and to give some account of the hope that is within us as Reformed Christians.

OUR JUDEO-CHRISTIAN STORY

To live in covenant relationship with the God of the Old and New Testaments is to affirm the value and dignity of the world, created, sustained and redeemed by that God.

God created the world as a joy to himself and a blessing to all humanity.

God promised our parent, Noah, that he would deal with his creation, not in anger, but in compassion.

God promised our parent, Abraham, that his compassionate power would flow through his descendants as a blessing to all nations.

God promised our parent, Moses, that a people would be created out of those who suffered and sojourned that would incarnate and share God's blessing.

God renewed his promises through our parents, the Prophets, to bless the whole creation through justice and well-being.

God fulfilled his promise of blessing in Jesus Christ, our brother and friend.

Throughout the history of God's invitation to covenant relationship, and in our own historical moment, people have failed to respond in faithful loyalty to the God who has called and is calling them to work with him in blessing the creation. We are part of those people. Their failure is our failure. Their ambiguity about the world and its worth is our ambiguity. Their obstruction of blessing for the world is our obstruction. Yet, while we are ambiguous, timid and obstructive, God remains faithful to his covenant of blessing, sealing it with the blood of his Son, Jesus Christ. In Christ and with Christ we experience the value and dignity of this world as blessed by God.

In God's faithfulness to his creation we are grasped by and recognize the ground of the hope that is within us as Reformed Christians.

OUR HOPEFUL RESPONSE

WE DECRY AND CONDEMN the proliferation of nuclear weapons and pledge ourselves to use every means possible to seek a moratorium on their production and a treaty preventing their use.

WE DECRY AND CONDEMN the justification of and apathy towards the dangers of nuclear power and pledge ourselves to use every means possible to protect the value and dignity of this world which has been given as a blessing from God.

WE DECRY AND CONDEMN the threat to life in all its dimensions symbolized by our nuclear capability and pledge ourselves to struggle to share in God's creative, sustaining and redeeming blessing of this good earth.

Dear Mr. Milligan
and Mr. Voss:

Thank you for your message and for what you had to say about our economic program. I know we can't make things right overnight, but I believe that our program offers an opportunity to end this inflation, to get us back into productivity again, to put our people back to work and to let our people keep more of the money they earn.

It won't be easy getting this program, but letters like yours make us more determined than ever that we are going to go through with the program. I just want to thank you for your encouragement.

1981 PROGRAM

The following Program for 1981 was enthusiastically adopted at the 24th Annual Meeting of The Ohio Information Committee on Friday, March 6, 1981:

1. To promote free, competitive and private enterprise as the best means of stimulating the economic prosperity of our nation.
2. To oppose and encourage the elimination of excessive regulations of private enterprise by government agencies at all levels.
3. Support efforts to diminish the ravages of inflation which is the great enemy of the American citizen.
4. Maintain opposition to giving public employees the right to strike and urge government at all levels to enforce their powers under existing law to insure the public health, safety and welfare.
5. Continue to oppose any effort to increase state indebtedness without a vote of the people. Support amendments at the federal, state and local levels to limit spending and limit taxation.
6. Promote voter education and participation in the elective and legislative process.

ANNUAL MEETING REPORT

The 24th Annual OIC Business Meeting was held at Ramada Inn North in Columbus on March 6, 1981. Officers, the Executive Committee (page 1), and the Board of Trustees (page 4), were elected for the coming year. Following discussion, the 1981 Program was unanimously adopted as presented above.

Following the Business Meeting and noon luncheon, Senate President Pro Tempore Thomas A. Van Meter, R., Ashland, presented an interesting and informative talk on current issues facing the General Assembly. The three main areas of concern for Ohio are schools, transportation and crime. In reflecting on the 1980 election results, Van Meter pointed out there is "no such thing as a safe seat". Elected officials must reflect the feelings of their constituents or they will be replaced. Our task is to let our elected officials know our opinions!

RESOLUTION

Subject: Support of the President's Economic Plan

Date: March 9, 1981 - Board of Directors' Meeting of the DuBois Area Chamber of Commerce

We, the Board of Directors of the DuBois Area Chamber of Commerce, in agreement with the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, endorse, in total, President Reagan's Economic Program of Extensive Spending and Tax Cuts. We believe that the adoption of these proposals is essential to rebuilding America and that, to succeed, the President must have a unified coalition of Americans who will rise up above self-interest and urge Congress to speed the passage of all necessary legislation.

We also recognize that the seeking of any exemptions from the President's program of budget cuts would not only destroy our credibility as business people who have for years pointed to the grave dangers of a government going out of control, but also it would seriously impair the unity that will be needed for Congress to approve the President's Program.

In taking this action, we also recognize our obligation to mobilize our resources as business people, to find new and innovative ways to pick up the slack and to assist in the active rebuilding effort. Our leadership in these times is a key ingredient to the total success of President Reagan's Program.

SUBJECT: Letter to James Brady concerning Topanga-Las Virgenes Resource Conservation District

re: I suggest Mr. Brady thank them for the resolution of congratulations but suggest that it may no longer be appropriate to list the President as an honorary director: "As President of all the people of the United States he should not be publicly identified as having a particular responsibility to a single geographic area." Thank you.

RESOLUTION OF CONGRATULATIONS TO HONORARY DIRECTOR
RONALD REAGAN UPON HIS ELECTION TO PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Whereas Ronald Reagan was one of the founding elected Directors of the Topanga-Las Virgenes Resource Conservation District in 1961 and continues today as an Honorary Director of the District, and

Whereas Ronald Reagan went on to serve as Governor of California for eight years and has recently been elected in a landslide vote for President of the United States, and

Whereas Ronald Reagan continues his interest in outdoor resource management with his ranch home in Santa Barbara County,

Now therefore be it resolved by the Board of Directors of the Topanga-Las Virgenes Resource Conservation District to extend its congratulations to Ronald Reagan upon his election to the Presidency, and to urge him to support Federal policies promoting the wise soil, water, and other resource management practices of landowners throughout America.

Actions to be taken:

1. To adopt this resolution
2. To publicize it in a news release
3. To send a copy to President-elect Reagan
4. To act immediately to have the C.A.R.C.D. propose a similar resolution for the convention of the N.A.C.D.
