Biography

Biography

Stephen Ira Danzansky is an attorney practicing in Washington, DC and has been a presidential appointee in three Republican administrations: Richard Nixon, Ronald Reagan and George H W. Bush.

Danzansky was born on July 31, 1939 in Washington, DC. His father, Joseph Danzansky was a noted Washington, DC businessman. Danzansky graduated from Washington & Lee University and the George Washington University School of Law. Outside of government, Danzansky has worked in several Washington, DC law firms and as an adjunct professor at the George Washington University School of Law.

Danzansky is an active volunteer, serving as an officer and director of numerous civic and cultural organizations, including the Washington Area Olympic Committee, Greater Washington Sports Authority, the YMCA, and the Washington Urban League.

Danzansky first executive appointment was as General Counsel and Operator for the White House Conference on Children & Youth from 1970-1971. In 1985, Danzansky joined the Reagan White House as Director of International Affairs Directorate in the National Security Council. In 1988, Dan Crippen recruited Danzansky to centralize all economic affairs in the Domestic Affairs office. Danzansky had the title of Deputy Assistant to the President for Economic Affairs. He also retained close ties to the International Affairs Directorate at the NSC. During the George H.W. Bush Administration Danzansky served as Deputy Assistant to the President and Director of Cabinet Affairs starting in mid-1989.
