Biography

Biography

Marty Schnepfer joined the White House Office of Public Liaison near the end of February 1984 as a Staff Assistant. She became an Associate Director in June 1985 with responsibilities for the health and senior constituencies. Some time in 1986, she became responsible for public liaison to the U.S. business community. She also continued to take part in health related public liaison activities. Prior to joining the White House, Ms. Schnepfer was a nurse by profession. In January 1988 she became Special Assistant to the President for Commerce and Professional Associations. She left the White House in May 1988.
