Biography

Biography

Wendell Wilkie Gunn is a retired corporate executive, a former Reagan Administration official, and the first African American student to enroll and graduate from the University of North Alabama in 1965 (then Florence State College) in Florence, Alabama.

Gunn was born on September 23, 1942 in Tuscumbia, Alabama,

In the summer of 1963, Gunn visited the Florence State Campus near his home to request an application to enroll. Gunn was interviewed by Dean of Students Turner Allan along with President E.B. Norton. President Norton informed Gunn that under Alabama law he could not admit him as a student, but if he sued the College in Federal Court they would be forced to admit him. Norton concluded the interview by giving Gunn a copy of the application: "He gave me the application and said, 'Go home and talk it over with your parents.'" Gunn spoke with attorney Fred Gray, lawyer for the Montgomery Improvement Association, who filed suit in Federal Court on Gunn's behalf. The court ordered Gunn be admitted.

After graduating from Florence State College with a degree in chemistry and mathematics, Gunn moved to Chicago, Illinois where he worked as a chemist for Nalco Chemical Company. While working, he enrolled at the University of Chicago and earned an M.B.A. in 1971.

Gunn then was hired by Chase Manhattan Bank in New York as a credit analyst (1971-1972) and as a Vice President from 1974-1979. While working at Chase, Gunn also was an Assistant Professor of Finance at Texas Southern University, 1972-1973. He was then hired by Pepsico, Inc. as Assistant Treasurer and Director of Investor Relations, 1979-1982.

Gunn made his initial foray into politics when a letter he wrote about the misguided approach by Governor Ronald Reagan's 1976 presidential campaign came to the attention of Senator Jack Kemp. Kemp recommended Gunn for a position in the Reagan Administration. Gunn was initially not interested, but was courted by the Office of Policy Development staff and a pitch from President Reagan himself. He began work in the Office of Policy Development (OPD) in May 1982. He served as Executive Secretary of the Cabinet Council on Commerce and Trade (CCCT). He advised the White House on business and trade matters, including issues involving minority-owned businesses. Gunn resigned effective June 5, 1984.

Wendell W. Gunn in White House with President Reagan

Following his service at the White House, Gunn worked as an economic consultant and was in the running for a Federal Reserve Board appointment.

After the election of George H.W. Bush in 1988 and Jack Kemp's appointment as Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, Gunn was chosen as Kemp's Chief of Staff, a role he held until 1990. Subsequently, Gunn was a Vice President at MetLife Pension & Investments until 1996. After leaving MetLife, Gunn founded and served as Managing Director of Gunn Solutions of Stamford, CT, an information technology consulting company to institutional investment managers.

Gunn served as a member of the GOP Economic Advisory Council from 1976-1980 and on the Republican National Committee's Advisory Council on Economic Affairs and Subcommittee on Tax Policy and Monetary Affairs. Gunn was as a member of the Board of Directors of the New Coalition for Economic and Social Change and a member of the Advisory Board of the Lincoln Institute for Research and Education.

In 2013, Gunn was chosen as the Convocation Speaker at his alma mater, the University of North Alabama and participated in special events commemorating the integration of the institution fifty years earlier. In 2017, Gunn was chosen to make the Commencement address at the spring graduation ceremonies at UNA and received an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters in recognition of his lifetime achievements. At a ceremony on March 14, 2018, the University of North Alabama renamed the prominently located Student Commons Building the Wendell

W. Gunn University Commons Building. Gunn is currently researching the context and historical background that led to the integration of Florence State College.

Gunn and his wife reside in Stamford, Connecticut. They have two sons and a daughter.

Scope and Content Note

The records in OAs 6851-6855 and 6857-6858 appear to predate Gunn's time in OPD. The Reagan Library staff will determine the provenance of this material at a later date. Much or all of it may be assigned to Dennis Kass, Gunn's predecessor as Cabinet Council on Commerce and Trade Executive Secretary.
