Biography

Biography

Michael Mussa's formal term as one of the three members of the Council of Economic Advisers began on August 15, 1986. He left this post in September 1988. Prior to August 1986, Mussa served as a consultant to the CEA from sometime in late 1985 until he became a member of the Council.

Shortly after leaving the White House, Mussa became the chief economist at the International Monetary Fund where he remained until 2001. Following this position, he was a Senior Fellow at the Peterson Institute for International Economics until his death in January 2012.
