Biography

Biography

Howard Teicher received his BA in political science, summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa, from Boston University in 1976. He received a Masters in International Affairs from Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies in 1978.

Teicher served as Director for the Near East and South Asia and Senior Director for Political-Military Affairs on the staff of the National Security Council from 1982 to 1987, after working under Presidents Jimmy Carter and Ronald Reagan at the Departments of State and Defense. As of 2016, Teicher was the Vice President with American-Israeli cybersecurity and application delivery provider Radware.

Scope and Content Note

Scope and Content Note

The Office of Political Affairs included Offices with the responsibility for various geographic regions. Under the old Office of Political Affairs, Howard Teicher worked in the Middle East Office. These regional responsibilities were later revised and elevated to directorates. Teicher was incorporated within the Near East and South Asia Directorate, as the Middle East Affairs Office was renamed. His collection consists of these two offices and Political and Military Affairs combined.

This collection consists of three series: SERIES I: Subject File, SERIES II: Administrative File and SERIES III: Chronological File.
