Biography

Office Description

Special Letter Response prepared letters requiring some personalization or specialization of response beyond the standard language used in the “response to public” form letters. The only material we have for this unit is material from the very end of the administration. It was either destined for the White House Bulk Mail collection or to be filed within the White House Office of Records Management Alphabetical File. We have not made this determination and retained the material in this unit. It is not arranged into series.

Scope and Content Note

This collection is a unit of the White House Office of Correspondence. The Library is treating this unit as a separate collection.
