Biography

Brief Biography

Allan A. Myer was a former army officer, a National Security Staff member, a speechwriter and communications advisor.

Myer is a Chicago-born son of Eastern European Jewish immigrants. Myer entered the U.S. Army at 18 and concluded a 25-year career as a Colonel. During his career he taught at the National War College.

As part of his army career he was detailed to the Reagan Administration's National Security Council (NSC) staff. There he worked on defense policy planning and programs and arms control. At the conclusion of his time at the NSC, he joined the White House Speechwriting staff (October 1983-April 1985) and began a second career as a communications expert.

Late in life (70) Myer remarried and started a second family. At 75, he was the father of a five-year old daughter. Also in 2015 Myer was appointed as the Chairman of the Board of the non-profit "The Israel Project" (TIP). TIP's sole function is to promote the state of Israel through positive press reports.
