Biography

Biography

Nelson C. Ledsky was a long-time public diplomat with the Department of State and the director of Eurasia Affairs at the National Democratic Institute (NDI).

Ledsky was born in 1930 in Cleveland, Ohio. Ledsky is a graduate of what is now Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio and Columbia University in New York City.

In his 35-year foreign service officer career, Ambassador Ledsky held a number of State Department posts, including U.S. negotiator in Germany and U.S. special coordinator for Cyprus, both with the rank of ambassador. Ledsky held numerous other State Department posts, including principal deputy director of the policy planning staff, 1985-1987; U.S. minister in Berlin, 1981-1985; deputy assistant secretary for congressional relations and director for Southern Europe. He was also director of the State Department's Olympic Boycott Office in 1980-1981 and had postings in Bonn, Germany; Enugu, Nigeria; and Georgetown, Guyana.

Ledsky was detailed to the National Security Council staff at the White House in 1987 and was promoted to Special Assistant to the President and senior director for European and Soviet Affairs in April 1988. He remained on the NSC staff until the end of the Reagan Administration.

His most notable position after serving in the White House was as the U.S. Special Coordinator for Cyprus with the rank of Ambassador. Ledsky retired from the State Department in 1992.

Post retirement, Ambassador Ledsky joined NDI, where he took over the reins of the Institute's nascent democratic development program in Eurasia and built it into an operation with activities and partners in more than a dozen countries.

Under his tutelage, NDI shared international experiences on political party strengthening, local government reform, citizen participation and parliamentary modernization with partners in Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Estonia, Georgia, Latvia, Lithuania, Moldova, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Russia, Tajikistan, Turkey, Ukraine, and Uzbekistan.

Ledsky's first wife, Cecile Waechter, was a fellow State Department employee and Case Western Reserve graduate and they had three children. Cecile Ledsky died in a traffic accident in 1998. Ledsky's second wife was Helen Coleman.

Ledsky died from renal failure on June 19, 2009.
