Biography

Brief Biography

John G. Grimes is a graduate of the University of Arizona. He has done some post-graduate studies at the U.S. Army War College.

Grimes spent four years in the United States Air Force.

Grimes career has been mostly as a civilian within the Department of Defense. In 1985-1988, Grimes was the National Security Council staff expert on secure government telecommunications and maintaining all communications in an emergency situation.

Upon leaving the White House, Grimes worked for the defense contractor, Raytheon.

During the remainder of the 1990s and early 2000s, Grimes served as various Deputy Assistant Secretaries at DOD. Grimes took the oath of office as Assistant Secretary of Defense for Network & Information Integration and Department of Defense Chief Information Officer in a Pentagon ceremony on Nov. 14, 2005. Director of Administration and Management Michael B. Donley, a former NSC colleague of Grimes, administered the oath.

Scope and Content Note

Although Grimes worked in two separate offices, his collection combines the material from both of these offices.

The John G. Grimes collection consists of three series: SERIES I: Subject File; SERIES II: Chronological Files ; and SERIES III: Administrative Matters.
