Scope and Content Note

This inventory is a result of an arrangement done by the library in 2006.

The Fielding collection currently consists of six series. They are: SERIES I: Chronological Files, 1981-1986; SERIES II: Staffing Clearance Memos, 1981; SERIES III: Alphabetical Chronological Files, 1981-1986; SERIES IV: Subject File, 1981-1986; SERIES V: Investigation Of Carter Debate Briefing Materials, 1983; and SERIES VI: Judicial Selection, 1981-1986

Series List

SERIES I: CHRONOLOGICAL FILES, 1981-1986

This series consists of letters, memorandums, notes and other correspondence created by Fred Fielding as White House Counsel. The material is arranged chronologically.

SERIES II: STAFFING CLEARANCE MEMOS, 1981

This series consists of work generated from the Reagan Transition Office regarding prospective personnel decisions at the very start of the Reagan Administration. The memos were written after Fielding assumed the Counsel's position and are therefore presidential records. They cover clearance issues regarding FBI investigations, financial disclosure statements and personal interviews conducted by the Transition and White House Counsel's office with prospective candidates. The folders are arranged chronologically.

SERIES III: ALPHABETICAL CHRONOLOGICAL FILES, 1981-1986

This series consists of mostly the same letters, memorandums, notes and other correspondence created by Fred Fielding as White House Counsel as Series I. The series is arranged in chronological order, but within each folder the material is arranged alphabetically by the correspondent.

SERIES IV: SUBJECT FILE, 1981-1986

This series consists of the review of legislation, court decisions or pending decisions, policy and actions of the Reagan Administration by the White House Counsel. This material reflects White House Counsel review of certain actions and policies for adherence to legality. It also contains the highest level advice to the President and senior White House staff on legal issues. Fielding was responsible for all areas of legal advice - for domestic issues and foreign affairs issues. This series is arranged alphabetically by folder title.

SERIES V: INVESTIGATION OF CARTER DEBATE BRIEFING MATERIALS,

This series consists of the White House materials regarding the 1983 Department of Justice investigation of accusations regarding the theft of President Jimmy Carter debate briefing materials during the 1980 presidential election campaign. Many of the folders include the name, "Albosta," for Representative Donald J. Albosta (D, Michigan), Congressman Albosta conducted the House of Representatives investigation into the possible theft of the briefing materials and the so-called "October Surprise." The "October Surprise" concerned allegations the Reagan campaign worked to delay the release of the Iran hostages until after the election. Albosta's Committee produced a report in 1984. There is no particular arrangement to this material.

SERIES VI: JUDICIAL SELECTION, 1981-1986

This series consists of agendas, attendee lists, some meeting notes and candidate profiles for the President's Judicial Selection Committee. The Counsel to the President was one of the presiding members of the Committee. The material is arranged chronologically by meeting date.

Last Modified Date

SERIES V: INVESTIGATION OF CARTER DEBATE BRIEFING MATERIALS,

This series consists of the White House materials regarding the 1983 Department of Justice investigation of accusations regarding the theft of President Jimmy Carter debate briefing materials during the 1980 presidential election campaign. Many of the folders include the name, "Albosta," for Representative Donald J. Albosta (D, Michigan), Congressman Albosta conducted he House of Representatives investigation into the possible theft of the briefing materials and the so-called "October Surprise." The "October Surprise" concerned allegations the Reagan campaign worked to delay the release of the Iran hostages until after the election. Albosta's Committee produced a report in 1984. There is no particular arrangement to this material.
