Biography

Scope and Content Note

Eliza Paschall joined the White House Office of Public Liaison in May 1984 as an Associate Director. She stayed approximately one year, leaving in May 1985. Paschall was a liaison on women's issues and groups, and briefly on the 50 States Project. She worked closely with and shared office support (Peggy Jordan) with Trudy Morrison who was the 50 States Project director. Some of Paschall's work product can be found in the Morrison collection. Prior to her work at the White House, Paschall was a federal retiree. She worked previously for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC).

The collection consists of three series: SERIES I: Subject File; SERIES II: Correspondence and SERIES III: Peggy Jordan Material.
