Biography

Biography

Phyllis Kaminsky served as the Press Liaison to the National Security Council (NSC) for most of 1981. She was detailed to the NSC from the International Communication Agency (ICA) which hired her in February 1981 as Special Assistant to the Associate Director for Programs. Prior to holding her ICA position, Ms. Kaminsky was Richard Allen's press secretary during the Reagan-Bush transition and, during the campaign, she served as the Deputy Director of Communications for the Reagan-Bush Committee, Arlington, VA. Sometime in late 1981, Ms. Kaminsky left her detailed position at the NSC and returned to the ICA where she became the Director of the Office of Public Liaison for the renamed ICA, the United States Information Agency (USIA).
