Biography

Biography

United States Air Force Colonel Robert Henry Lilac was detailed to the National Security Council staff on April 19, 1982. His job responsibilities included security assistance for foreign countries and overall arms transfer policies.

Prior to assuming his NSC position, Colonel Lilac served in a wide range of positions in the Air Force. After entering the service as a Second Lieutenant with the National Security Agency, he trained as a jet fighter pilot and served in Arizona and Nevada. He served three years in the United Kingdom, then flew two tours of duty in Vietnam. He attended the USAF Aerospace Research Pilot School from 1967-1968, where he was trained as both a test pilot and space research pilot. He served tours as a military advisor in Saudi Arabia, requirements division chief at Headquarters Tactical Air Command, and Commander of an Air Force A-10 Fighter Squadron prior to assignment to the Pentagon as Chief of Air Force International Programs for Saudi Arabia from 1979-1981. After serving as USAF representative on the 1981 sale of AWACS to Saudi Arabia, he was assigned as Deputy Director for Policy, USAF International Programs until his selection to the NSC staff.

Colonel Lilac served as the National Security Council Director of Political-Military Affairs working under NSC Deputy Director Donald R. Fortier. Oliver North, Richard T. Childress, and Philip A. Dur served as his Deputy Directors. On January 1, 1984 Lilac retired from the USAF and left the NSC to become Vice-President of American Marketing and Consulting Inc.

Scope and Content Note

The Robert Lilac collection consists of memos, correspondence, cables, intelligence reports, military publications, Presidential Determinations, and budgets dating from 1980-1984. Topics include foreign military sales, arms transfers, technological transfer, foreign travel and visitors, diplomatic missions, and security assistance. Most materials dated from 1981 to April 1982 were actually the work product of Robert Kimmitt. Lilac took over the arms transfer duties from Kimmitt, so many of Kimmitt's arms transfer country materials were maintained and combined with Lilac's. Kimmitt remained involved with arms transfer, even though the "official" duties were transferred to Lilac. All of the arms transfer files seemed to have been consolidated into Lilac's collection, except for some 1981 files which can still be found in Kimmitt's collection. Pre-1981 documents were used as reference material, but were not products of Kimmitt's or Lilac's. The Lilac collection is arranged in six series: Arms Transfer: Country File, Arms Transfer: Subject File, Technological Transfer File, McFarlane/Fairbanks Mission Cables, Chronological File, and Administrative File.
